

GENERAL INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

Admission to Pauley Pavilion's press seating and media room is by credential only. All credential requests should be made through UCLA's credential website at least three days in advance of the game. Website address and instructions can be obtained by emailing Alex Timiraos (atimiraos@athletics.ucla.edu). Members of the media should request credentials for road games through Timiraos (via email, or phone at 310-206-0524).

CREDENTIAL PICKUP

Credentials are available during the week at the Sports Information Office. Credentials not claimed before game day will be available at Pauley Pavilion's Will Call window, located on the Northwest corner of the arena. The media will call window and media entrance opens two hours prior to tip-off.

MEDIA PARKING

A limited number of single-game parking passes are available for purchase ($12.00). These passes are good for a special area on the top level of Lot 8 (to the south of Pauley Pavilion), which can be reached by following Westwood Blvd. into campus from Westwood Village.

MEDIA ENTRANCE/SEATING

A press pass enables entrance at Pauley Pavilion's Northeast media gate (across from the intramural field). Press seating is located in the upper level of the arena's south side (opposite team benches).

MEDIA WORKROOM

Pauley Pavilion's media workroom is located in the northeast corner of the building on the event level. Game notes, statistics and in-game refreshments will be provided prior to tip-off.

MEDIA SERVICES

Media will be supplied with pregame notes, halftime and final statistics and a play-by-play account of the game. Postgame quotes from both head coaches will also be supplied. Media members wishing to order a telephone line should email Alex Timiraos (atimiraos@athletics.ucla.edu). Telephone lines have been installed at the visiting radio position courtesy of IMG, UCLA's media rights partner.

PHOTOGRAPHY

Photo passes are available to accredited media and should be ordered in the same manner as media credentials. Photographers must work from the baselines between the basket support and the right sideline. Photographers are not allowed to shoot from the sidelines or seating areas at any time. Passes should be worn in plain sight at all times.

Larry Drew II speaks with ESPN reporter Samantha Ponder

POST-GAME PROCEDURE

Following a cooling-off period, head coach Steve Alford and selected UCLA players will be available for interviews in the media workroom (event level). The UCLA locker room is closed to the media. The visiting coach will be available outside the visitor's locker room (northwest corner, event level).

WEEKDAY INTERVIEWS

Requests for coach and player interviews should be made to Alex Timiraos in the Sports Information Office. Please give at least 24 hours notice.

Head Coach: Steve Alford addresses the media at approximately 2:00 p.m. each Monday (one hour prior to practice) in the media room of Pauley Pavilion (northeast corner, event level). In addition, video playback of that week's press conference with Coach Alford is available online (uclabruins.com).

Players: All interviews must be arranged through the Sports Information Office at least 24 hours in advance. Players will be available following Coach Alford's remarks on Monday afternoons. Special player interview times on Monday and Tuesday can also be arranged. Please do not expect players to be available if you have not made prior arrangements.

PRACTICE

The UCLA basketball team practices in Pauley Pavilion. Media members are allowed to observe and record footage from the first 15 minutes of practice following Steve Alford's media availability on Mondays (date is subject to change, depending upon UCLA's game schedule that week).

DIRECTIONS

Directions to UCLA and Pauley Pavilion: From Los Angeles International Airport, take Century Blvd. east to the San Diego Freeway (405). Take the San Diego Freeway north to Wilshire Blvd. (approx. 15 miles). Go east on Wilshire, make a left on Westwood Blvd. go north to the campus. Stop at the parking and information kiosk. Media parking ($12.00) is available in Lot 8, on the west side of Westwood Blvd., just prior to Strathmore Drive.

UCLA WEBSITE

All UCLA releases, results and statistics are posted on UCLA's official website (uclabruins.com). The official website also includes postgame video recaps, videos of Ben Howland's weekly press conferences, regular video blogs with UCLA's student-athletes and links to UCLA's social media websites, including Twitter and Facebook.

UCLA BASKETBALL ON TELEVISION, RADIO

For the sixth straight season, UCLA men's basketball games will be produced by the UCLA Sports Network from IMG, with AM 570 Fox Sports LA in Los Angeles serving as the flagship station for the network. This is the 17th year of UCLA's partnership with AM 570 Fox Sports LA owner Clear Channel. Other stations on the UCLA Sports Network from IMG include KXEX (1550 AM) in Fresno and KSLK (96.1 FM) in Visalia.

In 2013-14, UCLA will have 30 of its 31 regular-season basketball games televised, with one contest to be broadcast via ESPN3.com (ESPN's online platform). The Bruins will have 13 games broadcast by the ESPN family of networks, including a non-conference meeting against Duke at Madison Square Garden on Dec. 19 set to air on ESPN. Four of UCLA's game will be televised by Fox Sports 1, and 14 of its games will be carried by Pac-12 Networks. The Bruins' game at Missouri on Dec. 7 will be televised by CBS.

Hall of Fame broadcaster Chris Roberts (talk@chrisrobertsonline.net) enters his 22nd year as the "Voice of the Bruins" and his 33rd season broadcasting NCAA Division I sports in Los Angeles. Roberts was honored with the Chick Hearn Award for best "play-by-play" on Jan. 28, 2013 by the Southern California Sports Broadcasters. He is also a Hall of Famer of the same organization, inducted on Jan. 30, 2012. Since 1982, Roberts has broadcast more NCAA Division I games on Los Angeles radio than anyone.

Prior to joining the Bruins in the fall of 1992, he served as the voice of the Long Beach State 49ers for 10 years and one with Cal State Fullerton. During that time, he was the sports director at KFI/KOST 103 FM. A four-time Golden Mike winner, he also handles the play-by-play duties for UCLA football. He has also authored two books, Stadium Stories: UCLA Bruins and UCLA Football Vault, which he co-authored with Bill Bennett.

An eight-time nominee for the Southern California Broadcasters Association "Play-by-Play Broadcaster of the Year" award, Roberts is a voter for both the Heisman Trophy and the Wooden Award.

Tracy Murray, who starred on the court at UCLA from 1990-1992, will be in his sixth year serving as a color analyst alongside Roberts. Murray is a 12-year NBA veteran and ranks ninth on UCLA's all-time scoring list (1,792 points in 98 career games). He was selected No. 18 in the first round of the 1992 NBA Draft by the San Antonio Spurs.

Fans around the nation can also follow select UCLA games on SIRIUS and XM Satellite Radio.

Broadcasts are also available on the Internet by visiting www.uclabruins.com.

ENTERING ITS 48TH SEASON AS UCLA'S HOME

UCLA plays its second season in renovated Pauley Pavilion in 2013-14. The Bruins' iconic arena underwent a 33-month, $136-million renovation prior to the 2012-13 season. UCLA's athletic teams vacated the building during the 2011-12 season, and the men's basketball team played its 18 "home" games at the Los Angeles Sports Arena (14 games) and the Honda Center in Anaheim (four games).

Last season, UCLA broke the Pauley Pavilion attendance record twice. The Bruins' first agme in the renovated arena housed a then-record 13,513 fans, as UCLA defeated Indiana State, 86-59. In the regular season finale, a school record 13,727 fans watch the Bruins defeat Arizona, 74-69, hours after Pauley Pavilion hosted ESPN College GameDay presented by State Farm early that morning.

Originally opened in 1965, Pauley Pavilion is one of the nation's premier all-around collegiate facilities. The arena's recent renovation included the addition of nearly 1,000 seats, bringing the current capacity to 13,800. While calling Pauley Pavilion its home, the men's basketball program has won nine NCAA championships and 21 conference titles.

Highlights of the building's renovation and expansion include a new seating bowl with renovated aisles and steps, a retractable seating system on the event level and a renovated bowl that includes a new floor system and over 1,000 seats. The facility features a new center-hung HD video board and LED ribbon board encircling the arena's interior. The renovation has allowed for more than 25 additional points of sale for concession and an increased number of restrooms (by 154% of the previous total).

The building's north side includes two large locker rooms with player lounges and one film room for the men's and women's basketball teams. Other amenities for the student-athletes include a sports medicine room, weight room, equipment room and plenty of storage space. The Pavilion Club on the mezzanine of the same structure will serve the campus for numerous special events, while the building's exterior showcases a new marketplace on the south side and a park to the east.

UCLA dedicated the floor in Pauley Pavilion as "Nell and John Wooden Court" prior to a UCLA men's basketball game against Michigan State on Dec. 20, 2003. Players from virtually all of Coach Wooden's teams joined him to celebrate the occasion.

In 1991, Pauley Pavilion served as the site for the U.S. Olympic Festival basketball and gymnastics competitions. Many world-class competitions, including the 1984 Olympic gymnastics and a historic table tennis match between the United States and China took place in Pauley Pavilion.

Some of the top names in college basketball history have competed in Pauley Pavilion. The list includes such greats as Lew Alcindor (Kareem Abdul-Jabbar), Bill Walton, Ed O'Bannon, Sidney Wicks, Marques Johnson, Reggie Miller, Baron Davis, Earl Watson, Kevin Love, Ann Meyers, Denise Curry and Pete Maravich and coaches such as John Wooden, Dean Smith and Denny Crum.

Entertainers such as Bob Dylan, Bob Hope, Henry Mancini, Frank Sinatra, Luciano Pavarotti, Nirvana, Bobby Brown, Eric Clapton, Guns and Roses and the Grateful Dead have all performed in UCLA's home facility.

UCLA's longest winning streak in Pauley Pavilion is 98 games (from 1970-71 to 1975-76). The Bruins' historic men's basketball streak ended Feb. 21, 1976 when Oregon defeated UCLA, 65-45.

Pauley Pavilion was introduced to the University at the June 1965 Commencement exercises, at which time it was dedicated and named for Regent Edwin W. Pauley, the principal donor to the building fund. The Pauley family also contributed to UCLA's Campaign of Champions.

Total cost of the original Pauley Pavilion was as follows: $2 million by the State, $1 million by the student body and in excess of $2 million by the alumni with $1 million of the alumni contribution donated on a matching basis by Regent Pauley.

Pauley Pavilion (310-825-4546) is managed by Susan Brown. The building's address is 301 Westwood Plaza, Los Angeles, CA, 90095.

UCLA is among the world's leading research universities, known for the breadth and quality of its academic, research, health care, cultural, continuing education and athletic programs. A shared public asset, UCLA enriches our neighborhoods, our nation and our world on a daily basis by creating knowledge, educating students, powering the economy and serving the community. Many of its 11 professional schools and academic departments and programs are ranked among the best in the nation. UCLA is a university with the size and scope to allow for unimagined diversity, unmatched breadth and depth of scholarship, and limitless possibility for its 26,600 undergraduates and 12,000 graduate students.

FACULTY, STUDENTS & ALUMNI

Five UCLA faculty have been awarded Nobel Prizes — the two most recent are Louis Ignarro in medicine (1998) and biochemist Paul Boyer in chemistry (1997). Among faculty there have been 10 National Medals of Science recipients, and hundreds of Guggenheim Fellowships, Fulbright Awards and other academic distinctions. At UCLA, thousands of students extend their educations beyond the classroom by working directly with faculty on research projects. Many UCLA undergraduates participate in major research studies, working one-on-one with world-renowned scholars as they discover and create new knowledge. UCLA's alumni are bright stars on the world stage. They include leaders of industry and commerce — Oscar, Grammy, Tony, and Emmy winners; philanthropists and public servants; Olympians and professional athletes; educators, engineers, bankers, and astronauts. Founded in 1934, the UCLA Alumni Association serves 88,000 members, part of the larger network of more than 394,000 UCLA alumni, with a comprehensive array of services and programs.

BOOKS & TECHNOLOGY

The UCLA Library is ranked among the top 10 academic research libraries in North America with holdings of more than eight million volumes as well as digital resources and services. From the birth of the Internet at UCLA in 1969, UCLA continues to be a leader in resources for learning. UCLA is nationally recognized for developing ground-breaking computer services for undergraduates and was the first university to have a website for every undergraduate. The university provides an innovative, on-line tool called "myucla.edu," which provides a Web page tailored to each student's academic needs.

Royce Hall

OUTREACH & COMMUNITY SERVICE

From its founding, UCLA has been an integral and contributing part of the greater Los Angeles community. Outreach programs and volunteerism are as much a part of UCLA as academics and research, with hundreds of UCLA-sponsored programs providing a wide range of opportunities. Many of UCLA's undergraduates volunteer for these programs, including tutoring youths, adults and incarcerated youths; addressing health and educational needs of underserved communities; combating poverty and homelessness; aiding the elderly and disabled; and providing legal, social, medical and educational assistance to community residents. Through outreach and academic preparation programs, UCLA works with K-12 schools throughout Los Angeles to help greater numbers of students prepare to compete successfully for college. UCLA also partners with community colleges to increase the number of underrepresented students transferring to the university. Additionally, UCLA faculty, researchers and students provide leadership and public service in health care, law, economic development, social welfare, urban planning, public policy, arts and the environment. Most academic departments have major research projects, field studies or student internships that directly affect people's lives in Los Angeles, the state and the nation.

HEALTH CARE

UCLA Health System has been a leader in patient care, medical research and teaching for more than 50 years. Today, our physicians provide an array of cutting-edge and research-based primary and specialty services in four hospitals on two campuses, and in more than 75 clinic locations. Physicians provide specialty services in offices located on the Westwood campus and throughout Santa Monica. Primary care physicians provide healthcare for children and adults in community offices from Manhattan Beach to Malibu. Patients from Southern California, the U.S. and around the globe enter our clinics more than one million times annually, and our hospitals, more than 80,000 times a year to be treated at the world-renowned Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center, the Santa Monica-UCLA Medical Center and Orthopaedic Hospital, primary care offices and community outreach health programs. The four schools in the medical enterprise are medicine, dentistry, nursing and public health. The Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center has been ranked as one of the top hospitals in the country by U.S. News & World Report, including "Best in the West" for 21 consecutive years. A new state-of-the-art medical center, which includes the Ronald Reagan UCLA Medical Center, Stewart and Lynda Resnick Neuropsychiatric Hospital and Mattel Children's Hospital UCLA, opened in the summer of 2008. Santa Monica-UCLA Medical Center and Orthopaedic Hospital's rebuilding project is scheduled for completion in late 2010. Groundbreaking research is constantly taking place in the Jonsson Comprehensive Cancer Center, the Gonda (Goldschmied) Neuroscience and Genetics Research Center and in many other centers and laboratories on campus.

ARTS

A diverse array of public arts programming makes UCLA the leading arts and cultural center of the West. More than 500,000 people annually attend arts events including theater, music, opera and dance performances, lectures, poetry readings, exhibitions, film screenings, and media arts that are presented by UCLA's two professional arts schools. Check the web sites at www.arts.ucla.edu and www.tft.ucla.edu for more information.

CONTINUING EDUCATION

One of the nation's leading university based institutions for continuing education, UCLA Extension offers 4,300 classroom and online courses and programs each year, helping 47,000 individuals in Los Angeles and around the world advance their goals for career, academic and personal educational development. More information about UCLA Extension is available at www.uclaextension.edu. In addition, the university conducts guided walking tours and distributes self-guided tour maps. For further information, call (310) 825-8764 or check out UCLA on the Web at www.ucla.edu.

Dr. Gene Block became chancellor of UCLA in August 2007 and enters his seventh year as the university's chief executive officer. In his current capacity, Chancellor Block oversees all aspects of the university's three-part mission of education, research and service.

A champion of public universities, Chancellor Block has set four major priorities for UCLA during his administration: academic excellence, diversity, civic engagement and financial security. He has called for UCLA to deepen its engagement with the Los Angeles region and to increase access for students from underrepresented populations.

Chancellor Block holds UCLA faculty appointments in psychiatry and bio-behavioral sciences in the David Geffen School of Medicine and in physiological science in the College of Letters and Science. He also heads a research laboratory on campus that is funded by the National Institutes of Health (NIH).

Previously, he served as vice president and provost of the University of Virginia. He holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Stanford University and a master's and Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Oregon.

Chancellor Block and his wife, Carol, have two adult children. The Blocks are avid Bruin fans and attend the competitions of various Bruin athletic programs.

Donald G. Morrison is currently in his 20th year as UCLA's Faculty Athletic Representative. In 2011-12, he served as President of the Pac-12 Conference. He previously served as President of the Pac-10 in 2008-09 and 1997-98.

Morrison, a specialist in management science and marketing, is the William E. Leonhard Professor in the Anderson Graduate School of Management.

A 1961 graduate of M.I.T. with a B.S. in mechanical engineering, Morrison earned a Ph.D. in operations research at Stanford University in 1965. He joined the Columbia Business School faculty the following year as assistant professor, served as associate professor from 1968 and was named professor of business in 1973. He has also served as visiting professor at Stanford and at the University of California, Berkeley. He joined the UCLA faculty in 1987.

Over the past 40 years, Morrison has supervised the doctoral dissertations of a number of students who are now faculty members of other leading institutions. Many are now on key editorial boards and eight have endowed chairs. Morrison was the founding editor of the professional journal, Marketing Science and was editor-in-chief of Management Science for eight years. He has served as departmental editor or editorial board member of several other professional journals. In 2002, Morrison was awarded the highest honor in the American Marketing Association, when he was named the McGraw-Hill/ Irwin Distinguished Educator of the Year.

He is the author or co-author of over 90 articles, with a special emphasis on marketing research and applied statistics. He has been an expert witness as a statistician in a number of legal cases and a consultant to industrial firms and government agencies.

Morrison, who will be 74 next February 26, served as captain of the M.I.T. track team. In 1961, he was the Eastern Conference long jump champion and placed third in the long jump at the New England Championships.

Morrison's wife Sherie is a professor in UCLA's Microbiology, Immunology and Molecular Genetics department. Their daughters, Heather Felix and Michelle Oliva, earned their MBA degrees from the Anderson Graduate School of Management at UCLA. The Morrisons also have three grandsons, Parker Graham Felix, Spencer Andrew Felix and Jake Carmine Oliva.

Sherie and Don have endowed several athletic scholarships and provided funds for academic/athletic awards during the last decade.

In 11 years, Dan Guerrero has clearly established a pattern of "image and substance" that few in his profession can match. UCLA has won 109 NCAA team championships, a figure unmatched by any institution in the nation. UCLA teams have won 23 NCAA championships since his appointment, another national leader, finished second 21 times and have enjoyed an additional 43 Top Five finishes.

More than 80 percent of UCLA teams have qualified for NCAA postseason competition since 2002. The football team has appeared in nine bowl games and the men's basketball team advanced to consecutive Final Fours from 2006-08. The program has also won 54 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced over 500 All-America selections and featured four Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

Furthermore, during the 2012 Summer Olympic Games in London, 32 Bruins participated as athletes or coaches, representing the United States and eight other nations. They won nine medals, including six golds.

In the last 11 years, UCLA has finished second three times (2007-08, 2006-07 and 2005-06), third four times (2004-05, 2003-04, 2011-12, 2012-13), fourth (2009-10), sixth (2002-03), 11th (2010-11) and 16th (2008-09) in the race for the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup.

In 2013, UCLA won its first Capital One Cup for men's sports, vaulting to the top of the standings after the baseball team won the College World Series.

This past year in NCAA competition, UCLA won its 109th NCAA title when the baseball team captured its first College World Series title, and eight teams finished among the top five, nationally. Men's water polo and men's tennis finished second, women's water polo and women's tennis (tied) placed third, women's golf and women's gymnastics finished fourth and women's soccer tied for fifth. Finally, 57 student-athletes earned All-America honors and 57 were selected to various all-conference teams.

Academically in 2012-13, three UCLA student-athletes received CoSIDA Academic All-America honors bringing the school's total to 116. In addition, graduating senior Jeff Locke, an All-Pac-12 first-team selection as a punter, earned the football program's 18th NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship and UCLA's 68th overall. Finally, pitcher Ryan Deeter became the first UCLA student-athlete to win the NCAA's prestigious Elite 89 Award in any sport.

During Guerrero's tenure, the Bruins have won 23 national championships in 17 different sports, a national leader. UCLA teams have captured the following NCAA team titles: six in women's water polo, three each in women's softball and women's gymnastics, two in women's golf, and one each in women's tennis, men's tennis, men's volleyball, women's volleyball, men's water polo, men's golf, men's soccer, women's outdoor track and baseball. In addition, the Bruins have recorded 32 national podium finishes in that span.

Over the past decade, Guerrero has earned numerous honors. In May 2010, he was honored by the Black Coaches and Administrators organization as the Dr. Myles Brand BCA Administrator of the Year. In April 2010, he was honored by CORO Southern California, a non-profit organization that trains civic leaders.

In June of 2010, Guerrero completed a five-year term on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee. As the chair in 2009-10, he was involved with the negotiation of the new $10.8 billion, 14-year NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament television package, as well as the decision to expand the Tournament to 68 teams.

In June of 2007, he was named the NACDA Division I West Region Athletic Director of the Year. His other honors include 2002 UCLA Latino Alumnus of the Year (October 2002); Cal State Dominguez Hills' Alumnus of the Year (March 2003); and 2003 "Father of the Year" by the Father's Day Council of the American Diabetes Association. On September 10, 2002, the Los Angeles City Council honored him with Dan Guerrero Day. He also became the first athlete in any sport at Banning (Wilmington, CA) High School to have his jersey (#8 in baseball) retired in 2003.

Guerrero was named one of the nation's 100 Most Influential Hispanics by Hispanic Business Magazine (October 2004) and the May 5, 2003 issue of Sports Illustrated listed him #28 among the 101 Most Influential Minorities in Sports. He was one of 28 people whose photo was featured on that issue's cover.

In addition to unparalleled success in the playing arena, his decade at the helm has also produced unmatched success in academics. In Guerrero's 11 years (33 quarters), student-athletes have secured more than 7,000 spots on the Director's Honor Roll (3.0 or higher grade-point average for a quarter). In 2012-13, more than 100 UCLA student-athletes earned all-conference academic acclaim. Finally, community service activities for the program are at an all-time high.

Resource development has always been one of Guerrero's strong points. Last year, a tremendous seven-year, multi-million dollar extension with adidas, equipment provider for all of UCLA's 25 sports, took effect. In 2004-05, he completed a new multi-million dollar agreement with ISP Sports (now IMG College), a premier national collegiate sports marketing organization.

Guerrero also led the negotiations that solidified the relationship between UCLA and the Rose Bowl, resulting in more than $180 million in renovations and restoration. He also reorganized the External Relations area, in anticipation of major revenue generating initiatives designed to address capital project needs, operational support and program endowments.

Under Guerrero's guidance, UCLA continues to aggressively enhance its athletic facilities, including the completion of the Bud Knapp Football wing of the Acosta Center. In the same complex, the sports medicine and athletic performance centers were renovated and redesigned, and the Olympic sports locker rooms were added on a third level. A new golf practice facility and the Easton Softball Stadium renovation were completed during the 2004-05 season. Spieker Aquatic Center was completed in the summer of 2009. Improvements to Spaulding Field, the Bruins football practice facility, and Jackie Robinson Stadium, the Bruins' baseball venue, continue to take place. Finally, the renovation of Pauley Pavilion was completed in October 2012, on time and under budget.

Guerrero has extensive experience in committee work at both the NCAA and conference level. In addition to his service on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee, he also served on the "College Basketball Partnership," a group that included many of the most influential people in the sport. He has served as Chair of both the Pac-10 Athletic Directors Committee and the Budget and Finance Committee, and has served on several other conference committees. He has also served on other NCAA committees, including the Men's Basketball and Baseball Academic Enhancement Committees. He is currently a member of the Pac-12 Athletic Directors Television, the Pac-12 Men's Basketball Tournament, and the Pac-12 Rose Bowl Management committees as well as serving as the Pac-12 AD Liaison to Men's Basketball Coaches. In addition, he is a member of the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee. Finally, he was president of NACDA (2011-12) and is a member of the BCS Athletic Directors Advisory Group.

Guerrero came to UCLA from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's fifth permanent Director of Athletics for 10 years (1992-2002). During his tenure, the program accumulated conference championships, garnered national rankings, featured graduation rates among the nation's best, and won numerous post-season honors for its student-athletes. In June of 2002 while still at UC Irvine, he was named the 2001-02 Division I-AA/I-AAA West Region NACDA Athletic Director of the Year.

Prior to arriving at UC Irvine, Guerrero worked at Cal State Dominguez Hills, where he led that program to national prominence while serving as Athletic Director for five years (1988-92).

Guerrero received his Bachelor's degree from UCLA in 1974 and played second base for the Bruins for four years. His three-year batting average in Pacific-8 Conference games was .343. Guerrero, known as "Warrior" during his playing career, was inducted into the UCLA Baseball Hall of Fame in 1996. The Bruin Athletic Director earned a Master's degree in Public Administration in 1982 from Cal State Dominguez Hills and was named to the Pi Alpha Alpha Honor Society for Public Affairs and Public Policy that same year.

Guerrero, 61, was raised in Wilmington, Calif. He is married to the former Anne Marie Aniello and they have two grown daughters.

The UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame enters its 27th year of its existence and its ninth in a new location facing Westwood Plaza. The new Hall of Fame, double the size of its predecessor, opened in July of 2001.

The first floor in the J.D. Morgan Center's east wing features the 8,000-square foot Athletics Hall of Fame and serves as the main entrance to the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics.

The Hall of Fame features state-of-the-art interactive displays; a mini-theater where Bruin video clips and highlights re-create past championship moments; a timeline of important U.S., California and UCLA dates showing how sports weave into great moments in history; a collection of Bruin memorabilia and more.

UCLA athletic teams have won 109 NCAA team championships and each of those first-place trophies grace the Hall of Champions. Other exhibits include photos of UCLA's first-team All-Americans in football and basketball, Gary Beban's Heisman Trophy, Wooden Awards won by Marques Johnson and Ed O'Bannon and a special display highlighting all of UCLA's Honda and Broderick Cup winners. Displays on UCLA's football bowl victories, the Bruins' NCAA basketball tradition and UCLA's Olympic Games medal winners are featured in the Hall of Fame.

Each of UCLA's sports has its own display area in the Hall of Fame. The cases include displays honoring Jackie Robinson, UCLA's Academic All-Americans and women in sports. There are also sample lockers of former Bruin greats in various sports.

In connection with the building, which originally opened in November of 1983, UCLA established a Hall of Fame with 25 charter members representing a cross-section of the school's athletic history. Each year, a minimum of one and a maximum of eight former UCLA athletes, coaches or administrators are added to the Hall of Fame. Following is a list of the members:

1. No. 1 in NCAA Titles (109)

UCLA became the first university to win at least 100 NCAA team titles (accomplished in May 2007) and has secured 23 NCAA Championships in the last 11 years (ranks No. 1 nationally) since Dan Guerrero became UCLA's Athletic Director. UCLA also ranks first in Olympians and Olympic gold medals from 1984-2012. A leader in producing professional athletes, UCLA offers the nation's finest overall combined academic, athletic and career resources for student-athletes.

2. Prestigious Degree / National Leader in Producing Top Students

Ranked in the top 10 among universities in most academic surveys, UCLA's professional schools rank among the top five in most areas and in the top 10 in others. UCLA is No. 1 in the nation for undergraduate student applications each year since 1999. The school is also among the all-time leaders in producing NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship winners. UCLA ranks No. 1 in the Kaplan Report survey of student resources for the college experience.

3. Highest Quality of Life / Best Place to Live

UCLA has been ranked "Best in West" and No. 2 overall as a public university in "Princeton Review" in on-campus housing options and dorm food. The campus welcomes 334 days of sunshine per year, with an average year-round temperature of 74 degrees. Situated five miles from the beach, UCLA rests in a thriving campus community of Westwood Village and is surrounded by Bel Air, Beverly Hills, Century City, Brentwood and Santa Monica.

4. World Class Facilities

Among UCLA's top-notch facilities include the remodeled and iconic Pauley Pavilion, the Rose Bowl in Pasadena (SI's No. 1 venue of all college sites), the Los Angeles Tennis Center, Drake Stadium (track & soccer), Steele Field at Jackie Robinson Stadium, Easton Stadium, Spieker Aquatics Center, Sunset Canyon Recreation Center, numerous adjacent championship golf courses, an on-campus golf practice facility, and the Acosta Athletic Training Complex for the best in sports medicine, athletic performance, and finest training equipment.

5. Legendary Coaching, Tremendous Sport Stability

UCLA has Olympic, National and USA Team coaches on its staff and individuals who have trained at the highest level and know how to win. No university can match UCLA's coaching stability in that only two Bruin head coaches have left for another Division I head coaching position over the past 40 years.

6. Exceptional Academic Support for All Student-Athletes

UCLA features 17 full-time staff working in academic and student services. This includes academic counseling, learning specialist, life skills coordinator, priority pre-enrollment in classes, academic mentors, individual and group tutoring, academic awards banquet, lecture notes, laptop lending program and career guidance.

7. Your Future at the Highest Level

UCLA serves home to the country's No. 1 Career Center for full-time, part-time or internship positions. The average personal income for a UCLA graduate is $77,500 and the average home value for UCLA grads is over $500,000. Student-athletes have access to Bruin Works program for Networking. A degree from UCLA means success across the world.

8. Complete National Sports Media Coverage

Centered in the nation's No. 2-largest media market (Los Angeles), UCLA garners more overall national, regional and local television team exposure than any other college in the nation. With numerous daily newspapers, UCLA ranks among the top in former student-athletes and students in sportscasting, news broadcasting, sports writing, acting, etc. to act as contacts for current athletes. UCLA ranks No. 1 in Sports Illustrated cover appearances. Major media outlets like ESPN, Fox Sports and USA Today have offices in L.A., and the athletic department has inherited much more national exposure with the creation of Pac-12 Networks, a series of seven cable channels (one national, six regional) that air live Pac-12 athletic events on a regular basis.

Darren Collison

Kevin Love

Jordan Farmar

9. Nation's No. 1 Tradition of Athletic Excellence

UCLA features countless athletes with historic long-term success across numerous sports, including starts such as Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Troy Aikman, Arthur Ashe, Lauren Cheney, Jimmy Connors, Lisa Fernandez, Troy Glaus, Natalie Golda, Rafer Johnson, Jackie Joyner-Kersey, Karch Kirby, Liz Masakayan, Ann Meyers, Jonathan Ogden, Corey Pavin, Jackie Robinson, Al Scates, Sharon Shapiro, Chase Utley, Bill Walton, and the late, legendary head coach John Wooden. UCLA ranks No. 1, worldwide, in university name recognition.

10. UCLA Intangibles / Best College Location

UCLA's overall success combining prestigious academics, top athletic finishes and tremendous social life cannot be matched by any other university. UCLA has great resources available on a daily basis for our student-athletes to be the best in any area they select. UCLA's axiom is Champions Made Here!

UCLA Continues to Excel in the NBA

Since 1948, UCLA has produced more NBA selections (108) than any other college in the nation. In the last 20 years, 26 UCLA players have been selected in the NBA Draft. The Bruins had a string of 13 consecutive seasons (1997-2009) which saw 20 players drafted out of UCLA (including eight first-round picks).

Over the last 10 seasons, UCLA has produced 13 NBA Draft picks, including six first-round selections. Most recently, Shabazz Muhammad was selected No. 14 overall by the Utah Jazz in the 2013 Draft. In June 2008, Russell Westbrook and Kevin Love were taken as the No. 4 and No. 5 draft selections, respectively, in the first round. Other recent first-round selections at UCLA have included Jrue Holiday (2009), Darren Collison (2009), Arron Afflalo (2007) and Jordan Farmar (2006).

Athletics Scholarship Endowments

UCLA Athletics thanks the individuals listed on this page for their tremendous generosity in providing an athletics scholarship endowment. The perpetual support generated by these endowments ensures that UCLA Athletics can provide ongoing support to the recipients of UCLA's NCAA maximum 282 athletics scholarships. UCLA Athletics encourages alumni and friends of UCLA to help us meet our goal of fully endowing each of our 282 athletics scholarships. With a minimum gift of $150,000 payable over three to five years, donors receive recognition as part of a permanent display in the UCLA Athletics Hall of Fame and athletics scholarship endowments play a critical role in empowering UCLA's student-athletes to succeed in the classroom, in competition and in the community. To learn more, please call Emily Lerner at (310) 206-3302, or visit www.WoodenAthleticFund.com.

1975 NCAA Champions

During his 27-year tenure as UCLA's head basketball coach, John Wooden led UCLA to 10 NCAA Championships, including a remarkable string of seven consecutive titles from 1967 to 1973. Coach Wooden retired at the conclusion of the 1975 season, having guided the Bruins to their 10th title in school history.
