

WELCOME TO PAULEY PAVILION

UCLA'S RENOVATED HOME

Pauley Pavilion underwent an extensive $136-million renovation and re-opened in time for the 2012-13 season. The arena began its expansion and renovation in March 2010 with the goal of improving not only as a basketball arena, but also as a multi-purpose facility. The building provides numerous amenities, including additional concession points and restrooms, nearly 1,000 extra seats, a custom-designed 16-foot by 12-foot LED high-definition Daktronics video board and an interior LED ribbon board.

Major highlights of Pauley Pavilion's new configuration include two state-of-the-art locker rooms, a 24-seat film room, a weight room, a sports medicine room and player lounges. Pauley Pavilion features 154% more restroom facilities and a wider array of dining options.

PAULEY RECONFIGURED

Entering its third season after a full renovation, Pauley Pavilion has approximately 13,800 seats, nearly 1,000 more than the building housed in its original configuration. The north side hosts a grand lobby highlighting the theme "Champions Made Here" and UCLA's 111 NCAA team championships and the Pavilion Club.

AROUND THE BUILDING

Pauley Pavilion's main entrance is located on the north side of the building, adjacent to Bruin Walk and directly across from the intramural field. Located outside the arena on the north side stands a bronze statue of former head coach John Wooden (sculpted by Blair Buswell). The statue weighs approximately 400 pounds.

THIS IS COLLEGE BASKETBALL

HOME COURT ADVANTAGE

The 2014-15 school year will mark UCLA's 49th season playing in Pauley Pavilion. Among the most iconic venues in collegiate sports, the Bruins will play 17 regular-season games in Pauley Pavilion this season, closing the regular season schedule with three consecutive home games versus Washington (Feb. 25), Washington State (Feb. 28) and USC (March 4). Since Pauley Pavilion re-opened following an extensive renovation two seasons ago, the Bruins have logged a 31-5 record in their home arena. The Bruins have posted a perfect record in Pauley Pavilion in 10 seasons.

IN THE SPOTLIGHT

Pauley Pavilion has twice served as the host to ESPN's College GameDay program. Most recently, UCLA hosted College Gameday on March 2, 2013, prior to the team's regular-season home finale versus Arizona.

SETTING RECORDS

UCLA established single-game attendance records in Pauley Pavilion twice during the 2012-13 season. That year's home opener versus Indiana State featured 13,513 fans (Nov. 9, 2012) and the season finale versus Arizona had 13,727 fans (March 2, 2013).
