AMY FULLER KEARNEY

HEAD COACH
15th Season
UC Santa Barbara '90

Amy Fuller Kearney enters her 15th season at the helm of the UCLA women's rowing program in 2015-16 and has established the Bruins as a consistent national competitor. After making a successful transition from a club team to a varsity program in 2001-02, UCLA earned its first-ever team bid to the NCAA Championships in 2010. In addition, the Bruins advanced to the NCAA Championships in 2012, 2013 and 2014.

UCLA's three consecutive NCAA berths helped to produce consistently top marks and strong results for the women's rowing program. In addition to three consecutive team appearances at NCAA Championships, UCLA has routinely been ranked among the nation's top 15 programs in weekly CRCA collegiate polls. The Bruins have finished as high as third at Pac-12 Championships (2012) and have competed with resounding success at national events such as the San Diego Crew Classic and the Clemson Invitational.

In 2014, UCLA finished 12th overall at the NCAA Championships, with the team's second varsity eight finishing second in the Petite Final (eighth overall). The Bruins' varsity eight crew advanced to the Grand Final at the San Diego Crew Classic and won each of its three races against the nation's top competitors at the Clemson Invitational.

Amy Fuller Kearney's Key Accomplishments at UCLA

- Led UCLA to four NCAA Tournament appearances in the last six seasons
- Helped the Bruins advance to each of three consecutive NCAA Tournaments (2012-14)
- Guided the Bruins to their first team trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2010
- Coached UCLA to a school-record 8th-place overall finish at NCAA Championships in 2012
- Saw UCLA's varsity eight crew finish first in the Petite Final in the 2013 NCAA Championships
- Responsible for the development of six first-team CRCA All-America selections
- Has produced 21 CRCA All-West Region selections since the spring of 2002
- In 14 seasons as head coach, 51 Bruins have secured CRCA National Scholar-Athlete honors
- Has seen her student-athletes secure 86 total Pac-12 All-Academic Team selections
- Developed two three-time All-Pac-12 Team selections (Britta Syverson and Vanessa Teff)
- Helped UCLA transition from club team to NCAA varsity status in 2001-02

UCLA posted its two highest team finishes at the NCAA Championships in back-to-back seasons. The Bruins finished eighth in 2012 and were ninth in 2013. UCLA's varsity eight crew finished first in the Petite Final (places 7-12) at each of those two NCAA Championships. Britta Syverson capped her four-year career in 2013 by becoming UCLA's second three-time All-America selection, along with Vanessa Teff.

The Bruins' 2012 squad not only secured the program's best-ever finish at NCAA Championships (eighth), but also raced to a third-place team finish at Pac-12 Championships, the highest such finish of any UCLA team at the season-culminating event. Not only did UCLA's varsity eight finish first in the Petite Final at NCAA Championships, but the Bruins' second varsity eight finished sixth in the Grand Final, and the varsity four was first in the Petite Final.

Fuller Kearney helped UCLA break into its first-ever NCAA Championships as a team in 2010, when the Bruins finished 12th overall at the national event. UCLA's eight finished ninth at the 2010 NCAA Championships, placing higher than any Pac-12 program in the Petite Final.

UCLA's previous NCAA Championship appearances included varsity eight at-large selections in 2005, 2006 and 2007. The eight crew's highest finish in that three-year span was a 12th-place finish in 2006.

Fuller Kearney led the Bruins' top two varsity eights to the Pac-10 Championship Grand Final from 2004 through 2007. UCLA's second varsity eight won the silver medal in 2005 and 2006 at the Pac-10 Championships.

Over the last eight seasons, Fuller Kearney has guided UCLA to a consistent place in the national rankings. UCLA has secured a ranking as high as No. 3 in 2012, No. 5 in 2013, No. 9 in 2014, No. 11 in 2010, No. 13 in 2008 and 2009, and No. 17 in 2011. The Bruins finished the 2014 campaign ranked No. 12 in the CRCA national poll.

Upon conclusion of the 2009 season, UCLA's Vanessa Teff was honored as an All-Pac-10 selection for the fourth consecutive season, becoming the first women's rower in program history to accomplish that feat. In addition, Teff secured CRCA All-West Region honors.

UCLA's 2007 team earned an at-large varsity eight bid to NCAA Championships, where they finished 14th overall. The Bruins helped earn the at-large entry after finishing fourth overall at Pac-10 Championships in May.

In 2006, the varsity eight raced to a 12th-place finish as an at-large selection to the NCAA Championships. Racing at the 2006 San Diego Crew Classic, UCLA advanced to the Grand Final in all three events and finished fifth in the varsity eight race.

The Bruins made history in 2005, sending their first-ever varsity eight to NCAA Championships as an at-large bid. The Bruins' crew finished 15th overall. Earlier that season, UCLA advanced to the Grand Final in each event at Pac-10 Championships. The first eight raced to a top-16 ranking and an at-large invite to the NCAA Championships for the first time in program history. The second eight made history, bringing home a silver medal from the Pac-10 Championships, a first at UCLA since rowing was elevated to NCAA varsity status.

Named UCLA's head coach on July 2, 2001 – the sport's inaugural NCAA season – Fuller Kearney came to Westwood after having served one year as assistant coach for the Stanford women's crew program (2000-01). At Stanford, she guided the Cardinal to its first top-20 national ranking in the program's NCAA history.

Prior to serving as assistant coach at Stanford, Fuller Kearney was an assistant coach at San Diego State for two years (1998-2000). She worked with the Aztecs while training for the 2000 Olympics with the U.S. National Team. Fuller Kearney has also spent time working as an assistant coach at the University of Tennessee, Chattanooga (1996-98) and for the U.S. National Team (1997).

From 1993-96, Fuller Kearney served as a motivational speaker for Champion International, a U.S. Rowing sponsor. She began her coaching career at UC Santa Barbara, her alma mater. From 1990-91, she led the women's novice program. Two years later, from 1992-93, she was the head coach of the women's team.

A three-time Olympian and world record holder, Fuller Kearney has accrued a strong national and international rowing background. In 1993, she earned U.S. Rowing Female Athlete of the Year honors. Two years later, she was a finalist for the Sullivan Award, presented annually to the nation's top amateur athlete. She spent the fall and winter of 1995 competing with the America's Cup Syndicate, America 3. She was a member of the first ever all-women's team to challenge for the America's Cup.

As a starboard aft grinder, Fuller Kearney used her strength and endurance to earn a starting spot among the world's top female sailors. In the spring and summer, Fuller Kearney again turned her focus to rowing and helped the women's eight to a World Championship in Tampere, Finland.

Fuller Kearney earned trips to the Olympics in 1992, 1996, and 2000. In 1992, she brought home a silver medal in the Women's 4-. In 1996 and 2000, she placed in the top 6 in the Women's 8+.

Additionally, Fuller Kearney has competed in eight World Championships, earning one gold medal and six silver medals (1989, 1991, 1993-94, 1997-98 and 1999). An extension of Fuller Kearney's international experience includes the Goodwill Games, the Lucerne International Regatta, and the Henley Royal Regatta. At the 1994 Goodwill Games, her women's 8+ team captured the bronze. Competing at the Lucerne International Regatta (1991, 1994-96 and 1998), she brought home five medals - three gold, one silver, and one bronze. At the 1998 Henley Royal Regatta, Fuller Kearney added another gold medal.

Fuller Kearney continued her rowing success at the C.R.A.S.H. B Sprints. She was the 2000 and 2001 World Record holder on the rowing ergometer and placed first for open women. On the national level, Fuller Kearney rowed for the U.S. National Team for 11 years (1989, 1991-2000). During this era, she recorded 12 gold medals, two silver and one bronze.

As a sophomore at UC Santa Barbara, Fuller Kearney discovered a passion for rowing. She later earned one gold medal and one bronze medal on the collegiate national level. In 1990, she was honored with the school's Associated Students Athlete of the Year Award. In 2006, Fuller Kearney was an inaugural inductee into the UC Santa Barbara Recreational Sports Hall of Fame.

A Westlake Village, Calif., native who prepped at Westlake High School, Fuller Kearney graduated from UC Santa Barbara in 1990 with a bachelor's degree in biology. She earned her masters degree in education from University of Tennessee, Chattanooga in 1998.

Fuller Kearney has also been certified by the American College of Sports Medicine as a Health Fitness Instructor and is a U.S. Rowing certified coach. She resides in Newhall, Calif., with her husband, Joe, and daughter, Shannon.

COACHING STAFF

JUSTIN PRICE

ASSISTANT COACH, 7th Season UCLA '06

Justin Price has spent six seasons coaching the UCLA women's rowing team, most recently concluding his second year as associate head coach and recruiting coordinator (2014-15). Through six seasons with the program, Price's work has been instrumental with the development of UCLA's varsity four and novice rowers.

Price has worked specifically with UCLA's varsity four the last three years (2013-15). He coordinates all aspects of the Bruins' recruiting efforts, including talent identification and development. In his first three seasons with the program, Price worked primarily to identify and develop UCLA's walk-on student-athletes.

Price spent the summer of 2013 representing the United States as the coach of the Under-23 men's coxed four that finished eighth at the Under-23 World Championships in Linz, Austria. In 2013, he also served as the head men's coach at the Pennsylvania Athletic Club, where he led the team to a club national championship in the Senior 4- at the United States Club Nationals and led the team to second-place finishes in the championship eight and championship pair at the Royal Canadian Henley Regatta.

Price rowed for the UCLA men's team before graduating in 2006. Prior to arriving at UCLA in the summer of 2009, he spent the three seasons as an assistant coach with the men's rowing program at the University of Notre Dame in South Bend, Ind.

Over the last three seasons, Price's efforts with the varsity four crews have been instrumental to UCLA's overall success. The Bruins advanced as a team to NCAA Championships in 2012, 2013 and 2014. The Bruins' varsity four crew finished third in the Grand Final at the San Diego Crew Classic and secured a 15th-place finish at the NCAA Championships in 2014.

In 2013, UCLA's varsity four had a very strong season, highlighted by a second-place finish at the Pac-12 Championships, marking UCLA's best finish in that event since the program's return to varsity status in 2001-02. The varsity also secured a pair of first-place finishes against nationally-ranked competition at the Clemson Invitational in 2013 including a victory over then-No. 3-ranked Virginia. In addition, UCLA's varsity four finished second in the Grand Final race at the San Diego Crew Classic and finished 13th overall at the 2013 NCAA Championships.

In 2012, Price worked with novice crews that earned multiple victories. UCLA's novice eight finished second at Pac-12 Championships, helping the team earn a third-place finish, UCLA's highest since the program was elevated to varsity status. The novice eight bested USC's crew at the annual crosstown race by more than 35 seconds. In addition, the Bruins' novice eight finished second in its Grand Final at the San Diego Crew Classic.

In 2010, Price helped lead the novice crew to multiple victories. After opening the spring season with convincing dual-meet wins over local foes Loyola Marymount and San Diego State, the novice eight earned a second-place finish in the Grand Final of the San Diego Crew Classic. The novice eight defeated Notre Dame in the afternoon portion of the SoCal Challenge and bested crosstown rival USC in the annual dual-meet showdown.

Price served as the freshman/novice coach for the men's rowing program at Notre Dame from 2005-2008, working primarily with walk-on athletes. He helped lead the Notre Dame novice crews to their best finishes in program history.

During the 2007-08 season at Notre Dame, Price coached two national championship novice crews as his student-athletes won both the novice eight and novice lightweight four at the American Collegiate Rowing Association's (ACRA) National Championship Regatta. Price's crews finished third overall in the team points competition at the 2008 ACRA Regatta.

Price led Notre Dame to similar success in 2008-09. That year, he recruited the largest group of freshman/novice athletes in team history and coached three novice eights. Price's novice rowers showcased their depth at the 2009 ACRA Regatta, leading the Fighting Irish to a second place finish in the overall team points competition. The novice lightweight four won the event for the second consecutive year, the first novice eight finished in third place and the second novice eight finished second.

Price spent four years (2003-06) rowing in UCLA's men's program. As a Bruin oarsman, he stroked the novice eight as a freshman and rowed in the varsity eight his final three seasons. In 2006, Price earned the bronze medal rowing in the men's varsity four at the Pac-10 Championships. He received the Coach's Award for his performance and leadership in 2004-05. In addition, Price was a three-time Pac-10 All-Academic Team selection – first team (2005, 2006) and honorable mention (2004).

Price graduated from UCLA in 2006 with a bachelor's degree in political science. He earned his law degree (J.D.) from the University of Notre Dame in 2009 and is a member of the California State Bar.

PREVIN CHANDRARATNA

ASSISTANT COACH, 1st season Columbia '97

Previn Chandraratna enters his first season as an assistant coach with the UCLA women's rowing program in 2015-16.

Chandraratna, a 1997 graduate of Columbia University, arrived at UCLA in August 2015 with 16 years of coaching experience, including seven years working with collegiate rowing programs. Most recently, he served for two seasons as an assistant coach and director of recruiting with the women's rowing team at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT). In 2014 at MIT, he helped the program to its fastest team finish in program history. The squad made appearances in the Grand Finals of its regional championships in all events during his three years in Cambridge, Mass.

Prior to his time at MIT, Chandraratna served as freshman heavyweight coach and director of recruiting at his alma mater, Columbia University, for four years. During his tenure at Columbia, the team earned a national ranking as high as No. 9.

Chandraratna also brings 10 years of scholastic coaching experience. He worked as head coach of Row New York and as an assistant coach at Pelham Community Rowing, where he helped lead squads to 10 state titles and one national championship. As Director of Programs at Row New York, he helped the program win the prestigious US Rowing Anita de Frantz Golden Oars Award.

As a rower, Chandraratna earned Most Valuable Player honors as the stroke seat of the heavyweights program at Columbia. He earned national level medals with NYAC and Union BC and trained with the U.S. national team at the National Sculling Center in Augusta, Ga.

Chandraratna earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in international relations from Columbia. He currently resides in Playa del Rey, Calif.

MEDIA INFORMATION

Media and photography credentials are not required for UCLA home meets. For any media request prior to a rowing event, e-mail Alex Timiraos from the athletic communications office (atimiraos@athletics.ucla.edu). All requests should be submitted at least 24 hours in advance. During competition, video and still photographers may only shoot from the bike path. The dock or launch areas may not be obstructed. Contact the athletic communications office at (310) 206-7870 for special arrangements.

INTERVIEWS: All interviews with student-athletes and coaches must be facilitated through UCLA's athletic communications office. Please do not expect student-athletes to be available if prior arrangements have not been made.

TEAM TRAVEL: For security purposes, UCLA does not release its travel information or travel plans for athletic teams to the general public. To contact a member of the rowing team on the road, please reach out to Alex Timiraos in the athletic communications office.

UCLA'S BOATHOUSE

The boathouse is located off-campus in Marina del Rey, Calif. From campus, take the San Diego Freeway (405 South) to the Marina del Rey Freeway (90 West) until the freeway ends. Make a left on "Mindanao", a left on "Lincoln Blvd", and a right on "Fiji Way". The Aquatic Center is located at the end of Fiji Way, behind the Villa Venetia Apartment Complex. The phone number at the facility is (310) 823-0048.

Pac-12 Conference The Conference of Champions

ABOUT THE PAC-12 CONFERENCE

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the conference ushered in a new era on July 1, 2011, officially becoming the Pac-12 Conference with the additions of the University of Colorado and University of Utah.

Just 27 days after the conference officially changed its name, Commissioner Larry Scott announced the creation of the Pac-12 Networks on July 27, 2011, solidifying a landmark television deal and putting the conference on the forefront of collegiate athletics. The Networks, including one national network, six regional networks, and a robust digital network, marked the first-ever integrated media company owned by a college conference. In addition, the "TV Everywhere" rights allow fans to access Pac-12 Networks outside the home on any digital device, including smartphones and tablet computers.

On the field, the Pac-12 rises above the rest, upholding its tradition as the "Conference of Champions @," claiming an incredible 140 NCAA team titles since 1999-2000, including nine in 2014-15, an average of nearly nine championships per academic year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success, with championships coming in 28 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led or tied the nation in NCAA Championships in 49 of the last 55 years, the only exceptions being in 1980-81, 1988-89, 1990-91 and 1995-96 when the Conference finished second, and only twice finished third in 1998-99 and 2004-05.

For the 10th consecutive year (in 2014-15), the Pac-12 had the most or tied for the most NCAA titles of any conference in the country, winning at least six every year since 2000-01. No other conference has won double-digit NCAA crowns in a single year, the Pac-12 doing so seven times, including a record 14 in 1996-97.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 was the first conference to reach 400 championships in 2010-11. With the inclusion of Colorado and Utah, the Conference surpassed another major milestone, with league teams capturing 450 titles, outdistancing the next conference by nearly 200. In all, Pac-12 teams have won 478 NCAA titles (291 men's, 158 women's, 29 combined).

The Conference's excellence is further proven in the annual Division I Learfield Sports Directors' Cup competition, the prestigious award that honors the best overall collegiate athletics programs in the country. Stanford continued its remarkable run and won a remarkable 21st consecutive Directors' Cup in 2014-15 leading the Pac-12 to an unprecedented 1-2-3 finish in the final standings. Seven Pac-12 member institutions ranked among the top-30 Division I programs, tying for the most of any conference, and five were in the top 15: No. 1 Stanford, No. 2 UCLA, No. 3 USC, No. 12 California and No. 13 Oregon. At least five member institutions have been ranked in the top 20 in all but one year of the Director's Cup program, with seven appearing in the top 20 on five different occasions (1998, 2001, 2003, 2005 and 2006).

The Pac-12's nine NCAA titles featured four men's and four women's, and one combined team title. Five league schools claimed NCAA titles and, of the seven NCAA institutions to have won multiples titles, three were from the Pac-12. No other conference in the country had more than one team win multiple NCAA titles.

In addition to the nine national championships, the Pac-12 also had runners-up in 11 NCAA Championship events. Overall, the Conference had 31 teams finish in the top four at 19 NCAA Championship events, including an all-Pac-12 women's water polo final four.

GENE BLOCK

CHANCELLOR
9th Year
Stanford '70

Dr. Gene Block became chancellor of UCLA in August 2007 and enters his seventh year as the university's chief executive officer. In his current capacity, Chancellor Block oversees all aspects of the university's three-part mission of education, research and service.

A champion of public universities, Chancellor Block has set four major priorities for UCLA during his administration: academic excellence, diversity, civic engagement and financial security. He has called for UCLA to deepen its engagement with the Los Angeles region and to increase access for students from underrepresented populations.

Chancellor Block holds UCLA faculty appointments in psychiatry and bio-behavioral sciences in the David Geffen School of Medicine and in physiological science in the College of Letters and Science. He also heads a research laboratory on campus that is funded by the National Institutes of Health (NIH).

Previously, he served as vice president and provost of the University of Virginia. He holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Stanford University and a master's and Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Oregon.

Chancellor Block and his wife, Carol, have two adult children. The Blocks are avid Bruin fans and attend the competitions of various Bruin athletic programs.

DAN GUERRERO

ATHLETIC DIRECTOR
14th Year
UCLA '74

Thirteen years and 27 NCAA Championships later, Dan Guerrero's mantra of 'image and substance' has clearly been established at a level that few others in his profession can approach. At the department's helm when UCLA Athletics became the first to 100 NCAA team championships, the Bruins' current total of 113 NCAA titles is a figure unmatched by any institution in the nation. While UCLA teams have won 27 NCAA championships since his appointment, another national leader, they have also finished second 26 times and have enjoyed an additional 49 Top Five finishes.

In fact, more than 80 percent of UCLA teams have qualified for NCAA postseason competition since 2002. The football team has appeared in 12 bowl games and the men's basketball team advanced to consecutive Final Fours from 2006-08 and has made five trips to the Sweet 16. The program has also won 60 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced nearly 600 All-America selections and featured eight Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

UCLA's success has not just been confined to North America. During the 2012 Summer Olympic Games in London, 32 Bruins participated as athletes or coaches. Representing the United States and eight other nations, they combined to win nine medals, including six golds, a total exceeding what most countries take home in any single Olympiad.

Guerrero, recently named the 2014 NACDA Under Armour Athletic Director of the Year award, is the only athletic director at the NCAA Division I level (FBS, FCS and NCAA Division I-AAA) to earn three such awards (2006-07 at UCLA, 2001-02 at UC Irvine). In his 13 years at UCLA, the Bruins have finished second four times (2005-06, 2006-07, 2007-08 and 2014-15), third four times (2003-04, 2004-05, 2011-12 and 2012-13), fourth (2009-10), sixth (2002-03), seventh (2013-14), 11th (2010-11) and 16th (2008-09) in the race for the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup.

In 2012-13, UCLA won its first Capital One Cup since its inception in 2010-11, taking home the title in men's sports by vaulting to the top of the standings by claiming the 2013 College World Series. In 2011-12, both men (3rd) and women (2nd) finished in the top three, while in 2013-14, UCLA finished second in the Capital One Cup women's standings, having captured national titles in both women's soccer and tennis. The UCLA women finished 10th in the 2014-15 Capital One Cup, giving UCLA three Top 10 finishes in the last four years on both the men's and women's side.

During the 2014-15 season, men's water polo captured its ninth NCAA title, and six other UCLA teams finished among the Top 5 nationally: men's soccer (2nd), women's tennis (2nd), women's water polo (2nd), women's soccer (T-5th), softball (T-5th) and men's golf (T-5th). Additionally, the football team defeated USC for the third-straight year, posted a 10-3 record, won the Alamo Bowl and finished in the Top 10 in the final polls, while men's basketball won 22 games and advanced to the NCAA Tournament "Sweet 16" for the second-straight year. And when everything was said and done, 55 student-athletes earned All-America honors, and 92 earned selection to various all-conference teams.

During Guerrero's tenure, UCLA teams have captured the following NCAA team titles: six in women's water polo, three each in men's water polo, women's softball and women's gymnastics, two in women's golf and women's tennis, and one each in women's soccer, men's tennis, men's volleyball, women's volleyball, men's golf, men's soccer, women's outdoor track and baseball. The Bruins have recorded 38 additional national podium finishes in that span.

Guerrero came to UCLA from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's fifth permanent Director of Athletics for 10 years (1992-2002), helping to elevate that program to unprecedented success. Prior to arriving at UCI, Guerrero worked at Cal State Dominguez Hills, where he led that program to national prominence while serving as Athletic Director for five years (1988-92).

A proud alumnus of UCLA, Guerrero received his Bachelor's degree from the University in 1974 and played second base for the Bruins for four years. Known as "Warrior" during his playing career, he was inducted into the UCLA Baseball Hall of Fame in 1996. The Bruin Athletic Director earned a Master's degree in Public Administration in 1982 from Cal State Dominguez Hills and was named to the Pi Alpha Alpha Honor Society for Public Affairs and Public Policy that same year.

Guerrero was raised in Wilmington, Calif. He is married to the former Anne Marie Marie Aniello, and they have two grown daughters.

MICHAEL TEITELL

FACULTY ATHLETICS REP.
UCLA '85

Michael A. Teitell is in his second year as UCLA's Faculty Athletic Representative, following six years of service on the Academic Senate Intercollegiate Athletics Committee. Teitell, a specialist in stem cells, cancer, and biotechnology, holds the Lya and Harrison Latta Endowed Chair in Pathology and is a Professor and Chief of the Division of Pediatric and Neonatal Pathology in the David Geffen School of Medicine.

A 1985 graduate of UCLA with a B.S. and M.S. in biochemistry, Teitell earned a M.D., Ph.D. specializing in immunology from the Medical Scientist Training Program (MSTP) at UCLA in 1993. He performed clinical residencies in pathology and post-doctoral research training at Harvard's Brigham and Women's Hospital and at UCSF before returning to the southland for a fellowship in pediatric pathology at Children's Hospital Los Angeles. He joined the faculty of the UCLA School of Medicine in 1999 as an assistant professor, served as associate professor from 2004, and was promoted to professor in the Departments of Pathology, Pediatrics, and Bioengineering in 2008.

Over the past 16 years, Teitell has supervised the doctoral dissertations of a number of students who are now becoming tenured faculty members at UCLA and other leading academic institutions in the US and abroad. Teitell is the founding director of the Cancer Nanotechnology Program in the Jonsson Comprehensive Cancer Center, director of the Tumor Immunology Training Program, and associate director of the MSTP at UCLA. He is Phi Beta Kappa, UCLA Eta Chapter, a Scholar and Stohman Scholar of the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society, and was elected to the American Society of Clinical Investigators in 2004.

He has authored over 155 articles and 12 book chapters, with a special emphasis on immunology, cancer, metabolism, stem cells, and biotechnology. He is on multiple academic and philanthropic scientific advisory boards and funding agency review panels. Teitell's research has led to 15 patents or patent applications for improved cell engineering and disease characterization through the creation of new instrumentation. His inventions are being commercialized through a local startup company. He is an avid runner, softball player, and little league umpire.

Teitell's wife, Cindy Malone, is a professor in the Department of Biology at the California State University, Northridge. They have two children, Benjamin and Liliana.
