AMANDA CROMWELL

Head Coach
Third Season
Virginia '92

One would be hard-pressed to find a coach who made as big of an impact in her first two seasons as Amanda Cromwell. Eight months after being hired on Apr. 12, 2013 as the fifth head coach in UCLA women's soccer history, Cromwell led her team to the program's first-ever NCAA Championship, and her teams have won 43 games with just two losses over two seasons.

Cromwell's 2013 Bruins finished the season with a 22-1-3 record and went unbeaten over their last 21 games. They gave up just one goal during the NCAA Tournament and only eight goals all season, leading the nation in goals against average (0.296). In addition to winning the national championship, the team won the Pac-12 title and tied the school record for most victories in a season. Abby Dahlkemper won the Honda Award, and three Bruins earned All-America honors, with five receiving first-team NSCAA All-Region honors. Cromwell herself was named Soccer America's Coach of the Year, the first-such honor for a UCLA women's soccer coach.

Year two of the Cromwell era was nearly as successful, as the Bruins went undefeated in their first 23 games before falling to Virginia in the NCAA Quarterfinals. Still, the Bruins earned a 21-1-2 record, won a second-straight Pac-12 title, set multiple school records, and accumulated a plethora of awards, including the Honda Award for Sam Mewis and a school-record four NSCAA All-America honors. Cromwell earned NSCAA Pacific Region Coach of the Year honors.

Cromwell came to UCLA after 14 years in the same position at the University of Central Florida. From 1999-2012, she guided the Knights to a 203-83-26 record, 11 NCAA Tournament appearances, four Atlantic Sun Tournament championships, four Conference USA regular-season titles and the 2012 C-USA tournament title. Cromwell's Knights made a NCAA Elite Eight run in 2011 that included a defeat of North Carolina in the third round. Cromwell's UCF players earned 96 all-conference honors and 38 National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) All-Region selections. They also amassed nearly 300 conference academic awards during her 14 years in Orlando, including 10 NSCAA Women's Collegiate Scholar All-American awards and one Senior CLASS Award.

Prior to Central Florida, Cromwell was head coach at University of Maryland-Baltimore County from 1996-97 and an assistant coach at the University of Virginia from 1992-94.

With 266 career victories and a .709 winning percentage at the close of the 2014 season, Cromwell currently ranks among the top-25 winningest active coaches and the top-30 all-time winningest coaches in NCAA history.

A native of Annandale, Va., Cromwell attended the University of Virginia and was the captain of the 1991 Cavaliers team that advanced to the Final Four. She was a two-time All-America selection, a finalist for the 1991 Hermann Trophy and a four-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference honoree.

Following her standout career in Charlottesville, Cromwell earned 55 caps while representing the U.S. Women's National Team. She was a member of the United States' 1995 FIFA Women's World Cup team and an alternate for the U.S. Olympic team in 1996. She later played professionally for the Washington Freedom, Atlanta Beat and the San Jose CyberRays of the Women's United Soccer Association and was inducted into the Virginia-DC Soccer Hall of Fame.

Cromwell is currently a member of the NCAA Men's and Women's Soccer Rules Committee and U.S. Soccer Board of Directors. From 2002 to 2006, she served as a member of the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports.

Cromwell graduated from the University of Virginia in 1992 with a bachelor's degree in biology.

Louise LIEBERMAN

Assistant Coach
Seventh Season
UCLA '00

A four-year letterwinner at UCLA from 1995-98, Louise Lieberman returned to Westwood in 2009 and is in her seventh season on the Bruin coaching staff. In 2013, she helped lead UCLA to its first-ever NCAA women's soccer championship.

Lieberman previously served as Director of Coaching for the highly-competitive LA Rampage FC for three years. Her primary position with the club included overseeing all 27 youth teams, while managing a staff of roughly 15 coaches. As director, she was also heavily involved in all parent/player relations with the club. Lieberman was hired by the Rampage to be the Director of Women's Coaching in 2005 and was elevated to the main director position after just one year.

Prior to her time with the Rampage, she served as former Bruin Paul Caligiuri's assistant for both the men's and women's teams at Cal Poly Pomona in 2002. Lieberman has also been extensively involved with the Cal-South ODP team, coaching at both the U-14 and U-16 levels.

As a player, Lieberman was a second-team All-Pac-10 selection at UCLA in 1995. She played in 78 games during her four-year career, totaling 31 points on seven goals and 17 assists. She helped the program claim its first two Pac-10 Championships in 1997 and '98, and UCLA made the NCAA Tournament in three of her four seasons, reaching the quarterfinals in 1997. Following her UCLA playing days, she played one year for the WUSA's Washington Freedom during the league's inaugural season of 2001.

Lieberman was a standout at Beverly Hills High School from 1991-95, earning multiple MVP, all-league and All-CIF honors. She was named one of Soccer America's Elite 11 Recruits as a senior in 1995. She also led her club team, the Fountain Valley Spirit, to a national championship in 1994.

Lieberman served one year as an undergraduate assistant coach at UCLA in 1999 while finishing up her degree in sociology.

Joshua S. WALTERS SR.

Assistant Coach
Third Season
Columbia Southern '04

Joshua S. Walters, Sr. returns for his third season as an assistant coach at UCLA. In his first season in 2013, Walters helped lead UCLA to its first-ever NCAA women's soccer championship and was named the NSCAA Pacific Region Assistant Coach of the Year.

Walters, who brings nine years of Division I experience to the Bruin staff, came to UCLA from Central Florida, where he served as the program's recruiting coordinator in 2012. He helped lead the Knights to their first Conference USA Tournament championship and to a school and conference record for shutouts with 15.

From 2010-12, Walters was the director of soccer operations at Florida State, with responsibilities for the day-to-day operations of the program, including team travel, gameday operations and community involvement.

Walters was an assistant coach with the women's soccer program at Utah State from 2007-10, serving as the recruiting coordinator and first assistant. Along with his duties for Utah State, Walters also earned positions on both the Region IV and Utah Olympic Development Program (ODP) staffs. He began his collegiate coaching career as an assistant coach at Houston, working primarily with the defenders and goalkeepers. Under his guidance, Houston's goalkeepers posted the lowest goals against average in school history (1.10) and set a school record with five shutouts in his first season with the Cougars.

Before his stint at Houston, Walters served 12 months as a First Lieutenant with Brigade S2 (Military Intelligence) of the Florida National Guard during Operation Enduring Freedom V in Bagram, Afghanistan. While in Afghanistan, Walters set up and directed a soccer clinic, as well as a series of games for Afghan youths. He later made a presentation on his experiences to the 2005 NSCAA Convention and was awarded the NSCAA Honorary All-American Award. During his military deployment, Walters received the Bronze Star for Valor and Service, the Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary Medal and the Humanitarian Service Medal.

Prior to his military duties, Walters was the head coach at Lawton Chiles High School in Tallahassee from 2000-05. He was also head coach of the Tallahassee United Futbol Club in 2002. Walters received his associate's degree of the arts from Marion Military Institute in 1998. He captained the soccer team and also earned MVP honors.

After graduating from MMI, he was commissioned as a signal officer in the Florida National Guard. Walters' coaching career started in Tallahassee at Godby High School, where he coached from 1998-2000. Additionally, he was the head coach for the Top of Florida Soccer Club until 2001.

A 2004 graduate of Columbia Southern University, Walters received his bachelor of arts in sports management and graduated cum laude. Walters holds an NSCAA Premier Diploma, as well as NSCAA Goalkeeper Advance National and USSF "B" licenses.

Walters, a native of Winston-Salem, N.C., is married to Amy Lucas, a former Ole Miss soccer player. They have two young children, Joshua "J.J." Shawn Walters, Jr. and Rylan Avery.

Aline REIS

Goalkeeper Coach (Volunteer)
Third Season
Central Florida '12

One of the greatest players in Central Florida history, All-American goalkeeper Aline Reis is in her third year as a volunteer assistant, coaching UCLA's goalkeepers.

For two seasons, Reis coached NCAA all-time shutout leader Katelyn Rowland. Rowland led the nation in both 2014 and 2013 in goals against average and earned NSCAA All-America honors both seasons. In 2013, Rowland earned College Cup All-Tournament honors after making two penalty kick saves in the semifinal shootout.

Reis was a four-year starter at Central Florida and earned NSCAA All-Central Region and All-Conference-USA honors all four seasons. During her freshman year in 2008, she received NSCAA All-America second-team honors, becoming one of just three freshmen in the country to be named to the first or second teams and the first UCF player in 13 years to earn All-America acclaim. She was also selected to the Soccer America All-Freshman Team after racking up the fifth-most saves in school history, 107. Reis went on to earn MAC Hermann Trophy Watch List acclaim as a sophomore and finished the year with a 0.95 GAA, seven shutouts and 82 saves. A two-time NSCAA Scholastic All-American, she capped her senior year by being named to the Lowe's Senior CLASS first-team and leading Central Florida to the Elite Eight for the first time since 1987.

She finished her career ranked second in school history for career saves (347), fourth for shutouts (27) and sixth for goals-against average (1.04) and was named UCF's No. 1 player in the C-USA era.

Following her collegiate playing career, Reis played professionally in Finland with Seinajoen Jymmi. She is a member of the full Brazilian National Team player pool.

Reis graduated from Central Florida in 2011 with a degree in Sports and Fitness. She was selected for the NSCAA 30 under 30 Coaching Program in 2013.
