AMANDA CROMWELL

Head Coach
First Season
Virginia '92

Collegiate coaching veteran Amanda Cromwell was hired on Apr. 12, 2013 as the fifth head coach in UCLA women's soccer history.

Cromwell came to the Bruins after 14 years in the same position at the University of Central Florida. From 1999-2012, she guided the Knights to a 203-83-26 record, 11 NCAA Tournament appearances, four Atlantic Sun Tournament championships, four Conference USA regular-season titles and the 2012 C-USA tournament title. Cromwell's Knights made a NCAA Elite Eight run in 2011 that included a defeat of North Carolina in the third round.

With 224 career victories and a .681 winning percentage at the close of the 2012 season, Cromwell currently ranks among the top-25 winningest active coaches and the top-30 all-time winningest coaches in NCAA history.

In addition to their accomplishments as a team, many of Cromwell's UCF players also earned individual honors for their play. During her tenure, Knights' players earned 96 all-conference honors and 38 National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) All-Region selections. They also amassed nearly 300 conference academic awards during her 14 years in Orlando, including 10 NSCAA Women's Collegiate Scholar All-American awards and one Senior CLASS Award.

Prior to Central Florida, Cromwell was head coach at University of Maryland-Baltimore County from 1996-97 and an assistant coach at the University of Virginia from 1992-94.

A native of Annandale, Va., Cromwell attended the University of Virginia and was the captain of the 1991 Cavaliers team that advanced to the Final Four. She was a two-time All-America selection, a finalist for the 1991 Hermann Trophy and a four-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference honoree.

Following her standout career in Charlottesville, Cromwell earned 55 caps while representing the U.S. Women's National Team. She was a member of the United States' 1995 FIFA Women's World Cup team and an alternate for the U.S. Olympic team in 1996. She later played professionally for the Washington Freedom, Atlanta Beat and the San Jose CyberRays of the Women's United Soccer Association and was inducted into the Virginia-DC Soccer Hall of Fame.

Cromwell is currently a member of the NCAA Men's and Women's Soccer Rules Committee and U.S. Soccer Board of Directors. From 2002 to 2006, she served as a member of the President's Council on Physical Fitness and Sports.

Cromwell graduated from the University of Virginia in 1992 with a bachelor's degree in biology.

Louise LIEBERMAN

Assistant Coach
Fifth Season
UCLA '00

A four-year letterwinner at UCLA from 1995-98, Louise Lieberman returned to Westwood in 2009 and enters her fifth season on the Bruin coaching staff.

Lieberman previously served as Director of Coaching for the highly-competitive LA Rampage FC for three years. Her primary position with the club included overseeing all 27 youth teams, while managing a staff of roughly 15 coaches. As director, she was also heavily involved in all parent/player relations with the club. Lieberman was hired by the Rampage to be the Director of Women's Coaching in 2005 and was elevated to the main director position after just one year.

Prior to her time with the Rampage, she served as former Bruin Paul Caligiuri's assistant for both the men's and women's teams at Cal Poly Pomona in 2002. Lieberman has also been extensively involved with the Cal-South ODP team, coaching at both the U-14 and U-16 levels.

As a player, Lieberman was a second-team All-Pac-10 selection at UCLA in 1995. She played in 78 games during her four-year career, totaling 31 points on seven goals and 17 assists. She helped the program claim its first two Pac-10 Championships in 1997 and '98, and UCLA made the NCAA Tournament in three of her four seasons, reaching the quarterfinals in 1997. Following her UCLA playing days, she played one year for the WUSA's Washington Freedom during the league's inaugural season of 2001.

Lieberman was a standout at Beverly Hills High School from 1991-95, earning multiple MVP, all-league and All-CIF honors. She was named one of Soccer America's Elite 11 Recruits as a senior in 1995. She also led her club team, the Fountain Valley Spirit, to a national championship in 1994.

Lieberman served one year as an undergraduate assistant coach at UCLA in 1999 while finishing up her degree in sociology.

Joshua S. WALTERS SR.

Assistant Coach
First Season
Columbia Southern '04

Joshua S. Walters, Sr. begins his first season as an assistant coach at UCLA in 2013. Walters brings eight years of Division I experience to the Bruin staff.

Walters came to UCLA from Central Florida, where he served as the program's recruiting coordinator in 2012. He helped lead the Knights to their first Conference USA Tournament championship and to a school and conference record for shutouts with 15.

From 2010-12, Walters was the director of soccer operations at Florida State, with responsibilities for the day-to-day operations of the program, including team travel, gameday operations and community involvement.

Walters was an assistant coach with the women's soccer program at Utah State from 2007-10, serving as the recruiting coordinator and first assistant. Along with his duties for Utah State, Walters also earned positions on both the Region IV and Utah Olympic Development Program (ODP) staffs. He began his collegiate coaching career as an assistant coach at Houston, working primarily with the defenders and goalkeepers. Under his guidance, Houston's goalkeepers posted the lowest goals against average in school history (1.10) and set a school record with five shutouts in his first season with the Cougars.

Before his stint at Houston, Walters served 12 months as a First Lieutenant with Brigade S2 (Military Intelligence) of the Florida National Guard during Operation Enduring Freedom V in Bagram, Afghanistan. While in Afghanistan, Walters set up and directed a soccer clinic, as well as a series of games for Afghan youths. He later made a presentation on his experiences to the 2005 NSCAA Convention and was awarded the NSCAA Honorary All-American Award. During his military deployment, Walters received the Bronze Star for Valor and Service, the Global War on Terrorism Expeditionary Medal and the Humanitarian Service Medal.

Prior to his military duties, Walters was the head coach at Lawton Chiles High School in Tallahassee from 2000-05. He was also head coach of the Tallahassee United Futbol Club in 2002. Walters received his associate's degree of the arts from Marion Military Institute in 1998. He captained the soccer team and also earned MVP honors.

After graduating from MMI, he was commissioned as a signal officer in the Florida National Guard. Walters' coaching career started in Tallahassee at Godby High School, where he coached from 1998-2000. Additionally, he was the head coach for the Top of Florida Soccer Club until 2001.

A 2004 graduate of Columbia Southern University, Walters received his bachelor of arts in sports management and graduated cum laude. Walters holds an NSCAA Premier Diploma, as well as NSCAA Goalkeeper Advance National and USSF "B" licenses.

Walters, a native of Winston-Salem, N.C., is married to Amy Lucas, a former Ole Miss soccer player. They have two young children, Joshua "J.J." Shawn Walters, Jr. and Rylan Avery.

Aline REIS

Goalkeeper Coach (Volunteer)
First Season
Central Florida '12

One of the greatest players in Central Florida history, All-American goalkeeper Aline Reis begins her first year as a volunteer assistant, coaching UCLA's goalkeepers.

Reis was a four-year starter at Central Florida and earned NSCAA All-Central Region and All-Conference-USA honors all four seasons. During her freshman year in 2008, she received NSCAA All-America second-team honors, becoming one of just three freshmen in the country to be named to the first or second teams and the first UCF player in 13 years to earn All-America acclaim. She was also selected to the Soccer America All-Freshman Team after racking up the fifth-most saves in school history, 107. Reis went on to earn MAC Hermann Trophy Watch List acclaim as a sophomore and finished the year with a 0.95 GAA, seven shutouts and 82 saves. A two-time NSCAA Scholastic All-American, she capped her senior year by being named to the Lowe's Senior CLASS first-team and leading Central Florida to the Elite Eight for the first time since 1987.

She finished her career ranked second in school history for career saves (347), fourth for shutouts (27) and sixth for goals-against average (1.04) and was named UCF's No. 1 player in the C-USA era.

Following her collegiate playing career, Reis played professionally in Finland with Seinajoen Jymmi. She is a member of the full Brazilian National Team player pool.

Reis graduated from Central Florida in 2012 with a degree in Sports and Fitness. She was recently selected for the NSCAA 30 under 30 Coaching Program.

NOTE: Poll was conducted by the Intercollegiate Soccer Coaches Association of America (ISCAA) until 1995. The National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) assumed responsibility in 1996.

Marshall Field at Drake Stadium has served as the home for UCLA women's soccer since 2000.

Marshall Field at Drake Stadium

The UCLA women's soccer team enters its 14th year of play on Marshall Field at Drake Stadium. The venue has served as the home of the Bruins since 2000.

The stadium, which has served as the on-campus home of the Bruin men's and women's track and field teams since 1969, took on a new look in the spring of 1999 when it was transformed into a state-of-the-art soccer/track & field facility. The stadium provides seating for 11,700 spectators. The cost of the project was $1.5 million and was made possible by a lead gift from Frank Marshall and Kathleen Kennedy. Marshall is a longtime UCLA soccer fan and was a member of UCLA's first NCAA men's soccer team in 1967.

The grass infield, named Marshall Field, houses a regulation 75-yard by 120-yard soccer field. The UCLA men's and women's soccer teams use this field for competition and the adjacent North Athletic Field for practice. The Bruins previously played their games on the North Athletic Field, as well as on Spaulding Field and Murdock Stadium at El Camino College. UCLA's all-time record on Frank W. Marshall Field is 131-12-6.

Marshall Field at Drake Stadium hosted its first-ever regular season soccer game on Sunday, Sept. 17, 2000 when the UCLA men defeated the University of San Francisco, 3-0. The UCLA women first played on the field on Oct. 15, 2000, defeating Oregon, 8-0 in front of 1,742 fans in attendance.

A UCLA women's soccer record-crowd of 4,068 came out to Marshall Field for a nationally-televised battle between No. 1 Stanford and No. 2 UCLA on Oct. 28, 2012.

Marshall Field has served as host of early-round NCAA Women's Soccer Tournament games for the past 13 seasons.

Dan Guerrero

Director of Athletics
12th Year
UCLA '74

In 11 years, Dan Guerrero has clearly established a pattern of "image and substance" that few in his profession can match. UCLA has won 109 NCAA team championships, a figure unmatched by any institution in the nation. UCLA teams have won 23 NCAA championships since his appointment, another national leader, finished second 21 times and have enjoyed an additional 43 Top Five finishes.

More than 80% of UCLA teams have qualified for NCAA post-season competition since 2002. The football team has appeared in nine bowl games and the men's basketball team advanced to consecutive Final Fours from 2006-08. The program has also won 54 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced over 500 All-Americans and featured four Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year.

In the last 11 years, UCLA has finished second three times (2007-08, 2006-07 and 2005-06), third four times (2004-05, 2003-04, 2011-12, 2012-13), fourth (2009-10), sixth (2002-03), 11th (2010-11) and 16th (2008-09) in the race for the Learfield Sports Directors' Cup. UCLA won its first Capital One Cup for men's sports in 2013, vaulting to the top of the standings after winning the College World Series.

During Guerrero's tenure, the Bruins have won 23 NCAA championships in 17 different sports, a national leader. In addition, the Bruins have recorded 32 national podium finishes in that span.

Over the past decade, Guerrero has earned numerous honors. In May 2010, he was honored by the Black Coaches and Administrators organization as the Dr. Myles Brand BCA Administrator of the Year. In April 2010, he was honored by CORO Southern California, a non-profit organization that trains civic leaders.

In June of 2010, Guerrero completed a five-year term on the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Committee. As the chair in 2009-10, he was involved with the negotiation of the new $10.8 billion, 14-year NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament television package, as well as the decision to expand the Tournament to 68 teams.

Guerrero has extensive experience in committee work at both the NCAA and conference level. He is currently a member of the Pac-12 Athletic Directors Television, the Pac-12 Men's Basketball Tournament, and the Pac-12 Rose Bowl Management committees as well as serving as the Pac-12 AD Liaison to Men's Basketball Coaches. In addition, he is a member of the NCAA Division I Baseball Committee, the BCS Athletic Directors Advisory Group and was the 2011-12 president of NACDA.

Guerrero came to UCLA from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's fifth permanent Director of Athletics for 10 years (1992-2002). Prior to arriving at UC Irvine, Guerrero led Cal State Dominguez Hills to national prominence while serving as Athletic Director from 1988-92.

Guerrero received his Bachelor's degree from UCLA in 1974 and played second base for the Bruins for four years. He is married to the former Anne Marie Aiello, and they have two grown daughters.

Ken Weiner

Associate Athletic Director
20th Year
UCLA '78

Ken Weiner enters his 20th year as Senior Associate Athletic Director-Business Operations at UCLA and his 34th year overall with the university.

His duties include the administration and supervision of men's and women's soccer.

He also oversees new business, project development and capital improvements for the athletic department. Weiner spearheaded the negotiations that resulted in a 20-year agreement between UCLA and the Rose Bowl, including much-needed facilities improvements for the football program. He is currently acting as owner's representative for the press box and stadium upgrades were completed. In addition, he supervises the athletic facilities division, the operations of UCLA's sports practice and competition venues, game and event operations, department and team travel and UCLA Camps, Clinics and Championships.

Weiner is responsible for major capital improvements for Athletics. Projects include the renovation of the J.D. Morgan Intercollegiate Athletics Center, the Acosta Student Athlete Training Center and Knapp Football Center, the new Hall of Fame, the Jackie Robinson baseball and Easton softball clubhouse construction and stadium renovations, the Drake Track/Marshall Field renovation, a new golf practice facility, the North soccer field construction, the Spieker Aquatic Center which opened in the fall of 2009, and the Pauley Pavilion renovation project, which was completed in the Fall of 2012. Future projects include upgrades of the baseball stadium clubhouse and practice facilities, Easton Softball Stadium improvements, Drake Stadium upgrades, and construction of a new Academic Studies Center.

Prior to his appointment at UCLA Athletics, Weiner co-founded and served as Associate Director of the UCLA Central Ticket Office and continues to serve as the liaison between the Athletic Department and the CTO. He earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from UCLA. He graduated with honors and was bestowed a Chancellor's Marshall award for service to the university. He and his wife, Caren, have two adult children, Nicole and Kevin.

Chancellor
7th Year
Stanford '77

Dr. Gene Block became chancellor of UCLA in summer 2007, taking the helm of a world-class institution comprising 37,000 students and 27,000 faculty and staff, with an annual budget of $3.6 billion. As chief executive officer, he oversees all aspects of the university's three-part mission of education, research and service.

Previously, Dr. Block served as vice president and provost of the University of Virginia, where he also held the Alumni Council Thomas Jefferson Professorship in Biology. With academic expertise in biological clocks, he conducts research on the neurobiology of circadian rhythms in higher organisms, leading a research lab funded by the National Institutes of Health (NIH). From 1991 to 2002, he directed the National Science Foundation's Science and Technology Center for Biological Timing. In 1997, he was named a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. He has invented a number of devices and holds a patent for a non-contact respiratory monitor for the prevention of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome.

Dr. Block joined the faculty of the University of Virginia in 1978 as an assistant professor of biology. He served as vice provost for research from 1993 to 1998 and then as vice president for research and public service until his appointment as vice president and provost in 2001. He also headed an NIH graduate training program aimed at increasing the number of scientists from underrepresented groups. In 1998, he received the Commonwealth of Virginia's Outstanding Public Service Award for his work with Virginia's business community.

A native of Monticello, NY, Dr. Block holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Stanford University and a master's and Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Oregon. He also completed a postdoctoral fellowship at Stanford, working with the late Colin Pittendrigh, "the father of biological timing" and distinguished biologist and former Stanford President, Donald Kennedy. Dr. Block and his wife, Carol, have two adult children.

John Ramey

Play-by-Play

John Ramey returns for his fourth season as the UCLA soccer program's play-by-play broadcaster.

Ramey is also the voice of the UCLA baseball team and called many historic moments for the team, including its first-ever College World Series Championship in 2013. This year, he will host The Bruin Insider Show on UCLA's flagship radio station am570 Fox Sports LA. The Bruin Insider Show is a weekly coaches' show that will air live from Barney's Beanery in Westwood every Tuesday from 7-8pm.

In addition to his work for UCLA, Ramey serves as the play-by-play voice of UC Riverside Men's Basketball. Ramey has worked for a variety of media outlets, including Dial Global/Westwood One Sports, Southern California Public Radio, CNN Headline News, and KNX 1070 Newsradio in Los Angeles.

He also enjoys a career as an singer/songwriter and musician, having released two solo albums. When not broadcasting, Ramey performs his music throughout Southern California and the West.

Erin Cole

Analyst

Former UCLA women's soccer team member Erin Cole begins her first year in the radio booth, joining John Ramey as a color analyst for the UCLA soccer games.

Cole was a member of the UCLA team in 2011 and 2012 but retired from playing due to injuries. She was a four-year letterwinner at Orange Lutheran High School in Orange, Calif. and a team captain for her club team, Chelsea SC.

Cole's older brother Gerrit was an All-American pitcher for UCLA from 2009-11. He was selected first overall in the 2011 MLB First-Year Player Draft by the Pittsburgh Pirates, becoming the first UCLA player ever chosen first overall in the MLB June Draft.

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the Conference ushered in a new era on July 1, 2011, officially becoming the Pac-12 Conference with the additions of the University of Colorado and University of Utah.

Just 27 days after the Conference officially changed its name, Commissioner Larry Scott announced the creation of the Pac-12 Networks on July 27, 2011, solidifying a landmark television deal and putting the Conference on the forefront of collegiate athletics. The Networks, including one national network, six regional networks, and a robust digital network marked the first-ever integrated media company owned by a college conference. In addition, the "TV Everywhere" rights allow fans to access Pac-12 Networks outside the home on any digital device, including smartphones and tablet computers.

The Pac-12 launched its China Initiative in 2011 as a way to proactively promote the Conference and member institutions through student-athlete exchanges and sport. In its first two years, Pac-12 student-athletes have enjoyed unique cultural and athletic experiences in China, and the Conference has gained significant brand exposure for the future and set a foundation for growth.

On the field, the Pac-12 rises above the rest, upholding its tradition as the "Conference of Champions ®," claiming an incredible 127 NCAA team titles since 1999-2000, including eight in 2012-13. That is an average of over nine championships per academic year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success, with championships coming in 28 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led or tied the nation in NCAA Championships in 47 of the last 53 years. The only exceptions being in 1980-81, 1988-89, 1990-91 and 1995-96 when the Conference finished second, and only twice finished third (1998-99 and 2004-05).

For the eighth-consecutive year, the Pac-12 had the most NCAA titles or tied for the most of any conference in the country, winning at least six every year since 2000-01. No other conference has won double-digit NCAA crowns in a single year, the Pac-12 doing so six times, including a record 14 in 1996-97.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 was the first conference to reach 400 championships in 2010-11. With the inclusion of Colorado and Utah, the Conference surpassed another major milestone, with league teams capturing 450 titles, outdistancing the next conference by nearly 200. In all, Conference teams have won 459 NCAA Championships (309 men's, 150 women's).

The Conference's reputation is further proven in the annual Learfield Sports Directors' Cup competition, the prestigious award that honors the best overall collegiate athletics programs in the country. STANFORD continued its remarkable run and won its unprecedented 19th-consecutive Directors' Cup in 2012-13. Seven Pac-12 member institutions ranked among the top-25 Division I programs: No. 1 STANFORD, No. 3 UCLA, No. 14 USC, No. 15 OREGON, No. 17 CALIFORNIA, No. 18 ARIZONA STATE and No. 23 ARIZONA. It marks the third-straight year at least six member schools are in the top 25.

The Conference's eight national titles came in the form of five women's and three men's crowns. Five different league schools claimed NCAA titles and, of the six NCAA institutions to have won multiples titles, two were from the Pac-12. No other conference in the country had more than one team win multiple NCAA titles.

USC was the only institution in the country to win three NCAA titles in 2012-13, claiming both the men's and women's water polo titles, as well as women's golf. It was the fifth-straight men's water polo win, while the women's golf team dominated the field, winning with a NCAA-record 19-under. OREGON won a pair of NCAA titles, capturing its first women's cross country crown since 1987 then stood atop the podium at the women's indoor track & field championships for the fourth-consecutive year. STANFORD reclaimed the women's tennis national championship, its first since 2010, while COLORADO won the skiing championship for the second time in three years. UCLA claimed its first-ever baseball title, which was the program's first in the sport and the institution's nation-leading 109th NCAA title all-time.

In addition to the eight national championships, the Pac-12 also had runners-up in eight NCAA Championship events: women's volleyball (Oregon), men's water polo (UCLA), skiing (UTAH), men's swimming (CALIFORNIA), women's swimming (CALIFORNIA), women's rowing (CALIFORNIA), men's tennis (UCLA) and women's water polo (STANFORD). Overall, the Conference had 33 teams finish in the top four at 25 NCAA Championship events.

Participation in the postseason was a common occurrence for the Pac-12 in 2012-13. Of the 22 sports sponsored by the Conference, 15 witnessed at least half its teams participating in NCAA or other postseason action. The men sent 59 of a possible 101 teams into the postseason (58.4 percent), while the women sent 70 of a possible 114 teams (61.4 percent).

Pac-12 members have won 309 NCAA team championships on the men's side, 88 more than the next closest conference. Men's NCAA crowns have come at a phenomenal rate for the Pac-12 - 16 basketball titles by six schools (more than any other conference), 53 tennis titles, 45 outdoor track & field crowns, and 28 baseball titles. Pac-12 members have won 25 of 44 NCAA titles in volleyball, 39 of 43 in water polo, 28 in skiing, and 23 in swimming & diving national championships.

Individually, the Conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA individual champions. Over 2,000 (2,123) individual crowns have been won by Pac-12 student-athletes over the years with 1,459 by male student-athletes.

On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 32 years ago, Pac-12 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 23 occasions, including 13-consecutive years from 2000-2013. Overall, the Pac-12 has captured 150 NCAA women's titles, easily outdistancing the SEC, which is second, with 90. Pac-12 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 23 softball titles, 20 tennis crowns, 14 volleyball titles, 15 of the last 24 trophies in golf, and 13 in swimming & diving.

Pac-12 women student-athletes shine nationally on an individual basis, as well, having captured an unmatched 664 NCAA individual crowns, an average of nearly 21 championships per season.

The Conference underwent monumental changes during the 2010-11 academic year, expanding to add two more teams with the addition of Colorado and Utah. Other major moves included agreeing to equal revenue sharing for the first time in Conference history, creating two divisions - the North and the South, for football only, establishing a Football Championship Game for the first time ever, securing a landmark media rights deal that dramatically increased national exposure and revenue for each school, and establishing the Pac-12 Networks and Pac-12 Digital Network that guaranteed enhanced exposure across all sports.

Currently, the Pac-12 sponsors 11 men's sports and 11 women's sports. Additionally, the Conference is a member of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and three women's sports.

The Pac-12 Conference offices are located 25 miles east of San Francisco in Walnut Creek, Calif.
