B.J. SNOW

Head Coach
First Season
Indiana '00

The 2011 season marks B.J. Snow's first year at the helm of the UCLA women's soccer program. He takes over for longtime head coach Jillian Ellis who, after 12 very successful seasons in Westwood, accepted the job of Youth Women's National Team Development Director for U.S. Soccer. Snow becomes the fourth head coach in program history, following Joy Fawcett (1993-97), Todd Saldana (1998) and Ellis (1999-2010).

Snow is no stranger to the Bruin program, having arrived at UCLA in 2006 as a volunteer assistant coach. He quickly rose through the coaching ranks in Westwood, going from volunteer assistant to full-time coach in the span of just one year. He was then promoted to assistant head coach in 2009. During his time at UCLA, the Bruins have compiled a record of 97-18-7, reaching the NCAA College Cup from 2006-09. UCLA also won three consecutive Pac-10 titles from 2006-08.

Snow has stepped into the head coaching role for Ellis on several occasions, most recently in the spring of 2010 when she was away coaching the Under-20 U.S. Women's National Team. His contributions also go beyond the playing field, as he has taken an active role in recruiting the last several years, helping UCLA notch top five classes in each of his six seasons on staff. The current 2011 recruiting class has been tabbed No. 1 by several publications. Snow arrived at UCLA after spending four years as the head men's coach at his former high school, Portage Central in Kalamazoo, Mich. During his tenure at PCHS, he led the Mustangs to three Southern Michigan Athletic Conference (SMAC) titles, including three district championships. In addition, Portage Central set the school record for wins in both 2004 (19) and 2005 (20). He also coached NSCAA/adidas National High School Player of the Year Eric Alexander, who now plays at Indiana. Snow was an assistant with the girl's team at the school.

A four-year starter on defense at Indiana from 1996-99, Snow helped the Hoosiers capture four-straight Big Ten titles, including back-to-back national championships in 1998 and 1999. Indiana's record during his time in Bloomington was 81-8-3.

In addition to his efforts in the college game, Snow has also served as an assistant with the Under-20 U.S. Women's National Team, traveling with the team to the 2010 FIFA Under-20 World Cup in Germany. He has also been brought in by U.S. Soccer to serve as a clinician at a number of coaching seminars.

Snow is married to U.S. Women's National team member Lindsay Tarpley.

Louise LIEBERMAN

Assistant Coach
Third Season
UCLA '00

Former Bruin player Louise Lieberman enters her third season on the UCLA coaching staff. She was named assistant coach in 2009, replacing two-year assistant coach Shannon MacMillan.

A four-year letterwinner at UCLA from 1995-98, Lieberman returned to Westwood after serving as Director of Coaching for the highly competitive LA Rampage FC for three years. Her primary position with the club included overseeing all 27 youth teams, while managing a staff of roughly 15 coaches. As director, she was also heavily involved in all parent/player relations with the club. Lieberman was hired by the Rampage to be the Director of Women's Coaching in 2005 and was elevated to the main director position after just one year. Prior to her time with the Rampage, she served as former Bruin Paul Caligiuri's assistant for both the men's and women's teams at Cal Poly Pomona in 2002. Lieberman has also been extensively involved with the Cal-South ODP team, coaching at both the U-14 and U-16 levels.

As a player, Lieberman was a second-team All-Pac-10 selection at UCLA in 1995. She played in 78 games during her four-year career, helping the program claim its first two Pac-10 Championships in 1997 and '98. Lieberman's career totals include 31 points on seven goals and 17 assists, and she still ranks in the top 10 all time (10th) at the school in career assists. UCLA made the NCAA Tournament in three of her four seasons, reaching the quarterfinals in 1997. Following her UCLA playing days, she played one year for the WUSA's Washington Freedom during the league's inaugural season of 2001.

Lieberman was a standout at Beverly Hills High School from 1991-95, earning multiple MVP, all-league and All-CIF honors. She was named one of Soccer America's Elite 11 Recruits as a senior in 1995. She also led her club team, the Fountain Valley Spirit, to a national championship in 1994.

Lieberman served one year as an undergraduate assistant coach at UCLA in 1999 while finishing up her degree in sociology.

Manny MARTINS

Assistant Coach
First Season
Cal Poly Pomona '06

Emanuel "Manny" Martins begins his first season as assistant coach with the UCLA women's soccer program. He brings a wealth of experience to the Bruins staff, having coached at the club, high school, college and semi-professional levels. Martins comes to UCLA from the highly successful Los Angeles Premier FC, where he served as the Girls Director of Coaching and Player Development, as well as the head coach of the club's WPSL team. He is also coming off a two-year stint as the men's head coach at Los Angeles Mission College in Sylmar, Calif. Prior to that, he was LA Mission's women's coach for two seasons.

Martins began his coaching career in 1996 as a volunteer assistant at his alma mater Sylmar High School. He quickly rose through the ranks, eventually taking over as Sylmar's head coach in 1998. He led the program to overall record of 101-54-22 in seven seasons. The team recorded a 1-13 record in the first year at the helm, however went on to post two 20-win seasons and three league championships. He also influenced the program into becoming the school's top academic team for two consecutive seasons.

While at Sylmar High School, Martins began his first stint at Los Angeles Mission College as an assistant coach. He eventually moved on to Division II Cal Poly Pomona, where he served as an assistant coach with the men's program for three seasons. At Cal Poly, Martins was responsible for recruiting, traveling, academic progress, and scouting, along with practice and game day protocol. He was directly responsible for the recruitment of Pomona's 2004 class, which has been labeled as the most talented recruiting class in the program's history.

Following his three-year run in Pomona, Martins returned to Los Angeles Mission College, where he served as head coach up until arriving at UCLA. At LA Mission, Martins was instrumental in helping the school to a conference championship, while also sending a number of players to NCAA Division I and II programs. LA Mission also earned a state ranking of No. 2 and a national ranking of No. 3 during his tenure. During his time at LA Mission, Martins also served as the boys head coach at Granada Hills Charter High School from 2007-10.

In addition to his efforts in the high school and college ranks, Martins has been very successful at the club level, serving as Director of Coaching and Player Development with the Los Angeles Rampage FC from 2006-10. The Rampage captured over 30 tournament championships during his time with the club, earning a U.S. Club National Championship on the boys side, including numerous Surf Cup and Dallas Cup titles. He moved on from the Rampage in 2010 to assume the position of Girls Director of Coaching and Player Development with Los Angeles Premier FC. He also coached the club's semi-professional team, earning WPSL Coach of the Year honors in 2010.

Martins was born in Portugal and moved to San Fernando in 1993, playing soccer at Sylmar High School and LA Mission College. He completed a Bachelors of Science degree in Kinesiology at Cal Poly Pomona in 2006. He holds three USSF National Licenses (D, C and B). He is fluent in Portuguese, Spanish, English and Creole.

Martins lives in Sylmar with his wife, Lorena, and his three children Isiah, Emma and London.

Jordi KING

Volunteer Assistant Coach
First Season
UC Riverside

Jordi King begins his first season as a volunteer assistant coach with the UCLA women's soccer program. His main responsibility will be to work with Bruin goalkeepers Chante' Sandiford, Katelyn Rowland and Alana Munger.

In addition to working with the UCLA program, King runs the Premier Goalkeeping Academy (P.G.K.A.) with Los Angeles Galaxy and U.S. National Team coach Ian Feuer.

A standout goalkeeper himself, King played one season of college soccer at UC Riverside in 2004 before turning professional and heading to Europe. His first stop in Europe was to play for Cardiff City in Wales. He also played in Hungary's first division for Kispest Honved before returning to the U.S. to play for both Chivas USA and the Los Angeles Galaxy.

A 2004 graduate of Malibu High School, King helped the Sharks capture a CIF title as a freshman, while winning multiple CIF honors during his high school career. He played club soccer for the highly successful So. Cal United Club, helping the team to a National Cup title.

King currently lives in Playa del Rey with his fiancée Adrianna.

Marshall Field at Drake Stadium has served as the home for UCLA women's soccer since 2000.

Marshall Field at Drake Stadium

The UCLA women's soccer team enters its 12th year of play on Marshall Field at Drake Stadium. The venue has served as the home of the Bruins since 2000.

The stadium, which has served as the on-campus home of the Bruin men's and women's track and field teams since 1969, took on a new look in the spring of 1999 when it was transformed into a state-of-the-art soccer/track & field facility. The stadium provides seating for 11,700 spectators. The cost of the project was $1.5 million and was made possible by a lead gift from Frank Marshall and Kathleen Kennedy. Marshall is a longtime UCLA soccer fan and was a member of UCLA's first NCAA men's soccer team in 1967.

The grass infield, named Marshall Field, houses a regulation 75-yard by 120-yard soccer field. The UCLA men's and women's soccer teams use this field for competition and the adjacent North Athletic Field for practice. The Bruins previously played their games on the North Athletic Field, as well as on Spaulding Field and Murdock Stadium at El Camino College. UCLA's all-time record on Frank W. Marshall Field is 114-11-3.

Marshall Field at Drake Stadium hosted its first-ever regular season soccer game on Sunday, Sept. 17, 2000 when the UCLA men defeated the University of San Francisco, 3-0. The UCLA women first played on the field on Oct. 15, 2000, defeating Oregon, 8-0 in front of 1,742 fans in attendance.

The past 13 seasons, Marshall Field has served as host of early-round NCAA Women's Soccer Tournament games. In fact, the Bruins take a 29-match NCAA home unbeaten streak at Drake Stadium into the 2011 season. UCLA's last tournament loss at home came against Texas A&M in 2002.

Dan Guerrero

Director of Athletics
10th Year
UCLA '74

On April 25, 2002, Daniel G. Guerrero was named UCLA's eighth Director of Athletics. A former Bruin baseball player, Guerrero, who assumed his duties on July 1, 2002, has enjoyed great success and exudes the pride of a student-athlete who is in charge of the program at his alma mater. Guerrero is one of the most respected and talented administrators in all of intercollegiate athletics. He is the current president of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA) and a member of the NACDA Executive Committee and served as president of the Division I Athletic Directors Association in 2010-11. This past year Guerrero received recognition by several prestigious organizations. In May, he was honored by the Black Coaches and Administrators Association as the Dr. Myles Brand Administrator of the Year. In April, he was presented with the Crystal Eagle Award by CORO Southern California, an organization that provides training of civic and government leaders. Additionally, he was recognized by the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) with the Clifford Wells Award for distinguished service to the organization.

In Guerrero's nine years as Athletic Director, he has clearly established a pattern of "image and substance" that few in his profession can match. UCLA stands as the No. 1 University in the nation for NCAA team championships (107 won), a number that continues to grow under his direction. In those nine years, UCLA teams have won 21 NCAA team titles (the highest total in the nation in that span) in 11 different sports, finished second 17 times and have had an additional 32 Top Five finishes (70 total). A staggering 172 teams (of 207 possible) have qualified for NCAA post-season competition and the football team has appeared in seven bowl games. The program has also won 46 conference championships in 15 different sports, produced over 460 All-Americans and featured four Honda Award winners, including the 2003-04 Collegiate Woman Athlete of the Year. Guerrero came to UCLA in 2002 from UC Irvine, where he had served as UCI's fifth Director of Athletics for 10 years. Prior to arriving at UC Irvine, he was the Athletic Director for five years at Cal State Dominguez Hills (1988-92). He received his Bachelor's degree from UCLA in 1974 and played second base in the Bruin baseball program for four years.

Ken Weiner

Associate Athletic Director
18th Year
UCLA '78

Ken Weiner enters his 18th year as Senior Associate Athletic Director-Business Operations at UCLA and his 32nd year overall with the university. His duties include the administration and supervision of five Bruin sport programs - men's and women's soccer, women's swimming and diving, and men's and women's water polo. He also oversees new business, project development and capital improvements for the athletic department. Weiner spearheaded the negotiations that resulted in a 20-year agreement between UCLA and the Rose Bowl, including much-needed facilities improvements for the football program. He is currently acting as owner's representative for the press box and stadium upgrades that are due to complete by 2013. In addition, he supervises the athletic facilities division, the operations of UCLA's sports practice and competition venues, game and event operations, department and team travel and UCLA Camps, Clinics and Championships. Weiner is responsible for major capital improvements for Athletics. Projects include the renovation of the J.D. Morgan Intercollegiate Athletics Center, the Acosta Student Athlete Training Center and Knapp Football Center, the new Hall of Fame, the Jackie Robinson baseball and Easton softball clubhouse construction and stadium renovations, the Drake Track/Marshall Field renovation, a new golf practice facility, the North soccer field construction, the new Spieker Aquatic Center which opened in the fall of 2009, and the Pauley Pavilion renovation project, which is due to be completed in the Fall of 2012. Future projects include upgrades of the baseball stadium clubhouse and practice facilities, Easton Softball Stadium improvements, Drake Stadium upgrades, and construction of a new Academic Studies Center. Prior to his appointment at UCLA Athletics, Weiner co-founded and served as Associate Director of the UCLA Central Ticket Office and continues to serve as the liaison between the Athletic Department and the CTO. He earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology from UCLA. He graduated with honors and was bestowed a Chancellor's Marshall award for service to the university. He and his wife, Caren, have two adult children, Nicole and Kevin.

Dr. Gene Block

Chancellor
Fifth Year
Stanford '77

Dr. Gene Block became chancellor of UCLA in summer 2007, taking the helm of a world-class institution comprising 37,000 students and 27,000 faculty and staff, with an annual budget of $3.6 billion. As chief executive officer, he oversees all aspects of the university's three-part mission of education, research and service. Previously, Dr. Block served as vice president and provost of the University of Virginia, where he also held the Alumni Council Thomas Jefferson Professorship in Biology. With academic expertise in biological clocks, he conducts research on the neurobiology of circadian rhythms in higher organisms, leading a research lab funded by the National Institutes of Health (NIH). From 1991 to 2002, he directed the National Science Foundation's Science and Technology Center for Biological Timing. In 1997, he was named a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science. He has invented a number of devices and holds a patent for a non-contact respiratory monitor for the prevention of Sudden Infant Death Syndrome. Dr. Block joined the faculty of the University of Virginia in 1978 as an assistant professor of biology. He served as vice provost for research from 1993 to 1998 and then as vice president for research and public service until his appointment as vice president and provost in 2001. He also headed an NIH graduate training program aimed at increasing the number of scientists from underrepresented groups. In 1998, he received the Commonwealth of Virginia's Outstanding Public Service Award for his work with Virginia's business community. A native of Monticello, NY, Dr. Block holds a bachelor's degree in psychology from Stanford University and a master's and Ph.D. in psychology from the University of Oregon. He also completed a postdoctoral fellowship at Stanford, working with the late Colin Pittendrigh, "the father of biological timing" and distinguished biologist and former Stanford President, Donald Kennedy. Dr. Block and his wife, Carol, have two adult children.

Academic & Student Services (AS2)

Mission Statement: SUCCESS

“Student-athletes Understand that Character Creates Educational Self-Sufficiency”

The mission of the UCLA Academic & Student Services office (AS2) and its S.U.C.C.E.S.S. Program is to provide an interactive learning environment that emphasizes life-long learning habits, goal setting, teamwork, leadership and character. Centered on the idea of the self-sufficient, independent learner, the S.U.C.C.E.S.S. Program features academic counseling, academic and student support services, and student-athlete development programs that support and encourage student-athletes to reach their full potential academically and personally.

The AS2 team promotes a healthy balance between academics and athletics and embraces UCLA's "True Bruin" philosophy setting forth the ethical standards of integrity, excellence, accountability, respect and service. Our commitment is to assist student-athletes in their transition to the university, earning their UCLA degree, and develop their skills and confidence to be champions in life.

UCLA Community Outreach/ Wooden Academy

All UCLA head coaches stress involvement with the campus and the community. Whether it's volunteering at an inner-city youth clinic, speaking to children at elementary and middle schools in the area, or assisting in campus programs such as 'Marathon Kids' and 'I'm Going to College,' community service is an important aspect of being a Bruin. These outreach opportunities give student-athletes a chance to mentor youth, give back to the community and serve as ambassadors for UCLA Athletics.

Community Outreach

Bruin student-athletes, coaches and staff have the opportunity to participate in community service activities on campus and throughout the Los Angeles area. Examples of these events include;

- Marathon Kids
- Dribble for the Cure
- Mattel Children's Hospital
- Elementary/Middle School Visits
- Team Prime Time/Prime Time Games
- UCLA Lab School Jogathon
- I'm Going to College
- Adopt a Classroom
- Special Requests/Events

These outreach opportunities give student-athletes a chance to mentor youth, give back to the community and serve as ambassadors for UCLA Athletics.

Wooden Academy: Teamwork, Leadership and Character

The Wooden Academy is a comprehensive leadership development program designed to educate and support the standards of leadership for Bruin student-athletes. The pillars of the Wooden Academy are teamwork, leadership and character. The program is named after legendary Coach John Wooden, and strives to teach the values and principles of his Pyramid of Success. We believe that these skills will assist student-athletes in their pursuit to be successful leaders and teammates at UCLA, and as they prepare to be champions in life. Student-athletes will have the opportunity to participate in the Wooden Academy each year by attending seminars and learning practical leadership lessons from coaches, administrators and Bruin alumni.

The J.D. Morgan Center

UCLA's commitment to comprehensive academic support services and a desire to expand existing resources to best serve the Bruin student-athlete of today and tomorrow remains constant. In an effort to support this ideal, UCLA's J.D. Morgan Athletic Center underwent a major expansion that upgraded the former facility into a high-tech building for the 21st century.

The project increased office space for both administrative and coaching staff, improved the student academic support services, and provided a "state of the art" Athletic Hall of Fame exhibiting the illustrious Bruin history and highlighting current events.

Below are some highlights of the J.D. Morgan Center.

Student-Athlete Academic Learning Center

- 24 computers
- 4 walk-up computers for easy printing
