NINTH-RANKED BRUINS SET TO FACE #1 ARIZONA STATE

The defending national champion and ninth-ranked Bruins (28-7, 4-2 Pac-10) embark on their first Pac-10 road trip, facing top-ranked Arizona State (37-4, 4-2) in Tempe this weekend. Friday and Saturday's games start at 7 p.m. and Sunday's contest begins at 12 p.m. Gametracker and free live audio will be available at UCLABruins.com.

ON DECK

The last two national champions will square off at Easton Stadium next weekend when 2010 champ UCLA faces '09 champ Washington. The series will be played Thursday through Saturday due to the Easter weekend, with game times at 7 p.m., 6 p.m. and 12 p.m. Gametracker and free live audio will be available at UCLABruins.com.

BRUINS IN THE POLLS

The Bruins fell three spots to ninth in this week's USA Today/NFCA Top 25 poll and slipped one position to 11th in the latest ESPN.com/USA Softball rankings. The Bruins tied Arizona for first in the Pac-10 preseason rankings, with each team receiving four first-place votes and 46 points.

HARRISON TOP 25 FINALIST FOR USA SOFTBALL POY AWARD

Junior Andrea Harrison has been named a Top 25 finalist for the USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award, as announced by the Amateur Softball Association of America (ASA) on Wednesday.

The award, which is considered the most prestigious honor in Division I women's collegiate softball, is designed to recognize outstanding athletic achievement by female collegiate softball players across the country. Past winners of the award include former Bruin great Stacey Nuveman. Megan Langenfeld, the most Outstanding Player of the Women's College World Series in 2010, was a top three finalist a year ago.

The Top 25 list represents 17 schools and six different conferences. The list is comprised of nine seniors, six juniors, nine sophomores and one freshman. The 2011 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year will be chosen from the 25 finalists.

Just days before the start of postseason play, a list of 10 finalists will be named and released on May 11. The final three finalists will be announced May 25 while the winner of the 2011 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Award will be announced prior to the start of the 2011 NCAA Women's College World Series in Oklahoma City.

NEWS AND NOTES

Senior GiOnna DiSalvatore became UCLA's all-time leader in doubles with her 60th in the first inning of last Saturday's game against Stanford. DiSalvatore is also in the Bruin Top 10 in four other categories ... senior Donna Kerr pitched in all three games of the Stanford series last weekend. She is first on the team with a 1.69 earned run average and 110 strikeouts ... junior Samantha Camuso made her season debut on April 6 against Loyola Marymount after undergoing hip surgery in December. She went 3-for-15 (.200) in four games last week ... junior Andrea Harrison continues to lead the Bruins in all three triple crown categories with a .430 batting average, 12 home runs and 42 runs batted in. She will wear #18 for the remainder of the season to honor her sister Monica, who will not play this year due to an injury ... freshman Talee Snow has hits in 12 of her last 14 games in which she has posted at least one official at-bat, batting .412 (14-for-34) with 11 RBI during that stretch ... freshman Jessica Hall leads the Bruin pitching staff with 14 wins and 109 1/3 innings. She is tied for 45th in the nation in victories ... sophomore B.B. Bates produced her second-career, four-hit game against Loyola Marymount. Her first came against Utah State on Feb. 20 ... junior Aleah Macon has pitched in six of the Bruins' last seven games. She tossed a career-best 8 2/3 innings in Friday's win against Stanford ... freshman Kellie Fox has three separate hitting streaks of nine, nine and eight games this season. She has hits in 20 of her last 23 contests and in 30 of 35 overall ... junior Katie Schroeder has hits in 13 of her last 15 games, batting .434 with two homers, 10 RBI and eight multiple-hit contests during that stretch ... freshman Alyssa Tiumalu has four home runs over her last 10 games, including a game-tying, two-run shot in the bottom of the seventh inning against Stanford last Friday ... junior Dani Yudin is tied for second on the team with 22 walks. She has been issued a free pass multiple times in a game on seven occasions ... Kelly Inouye-Perez earned her 200th-career victory on March 11 against Sacramento State and is 211-56 as the head coach ... the Bruins lost for the first time this season on Saturday when scoring in the first inning. UCLA is 18-1 in 2011 when scoring in its first at-bat and 39-2 over the last two years ... the Bruins also lost for the first time on Sunday against Stanford to drop to 6-1 ... UCLA has posted 11 mercy-rule wins, six shutouts and 11 comeback victories ... the Bruins have hit two or more homers 16 times and are undefeated ... 96 of the Bruins' 241 runs have been scored via the home run (39.8 percent of their runs) ... UCLA has four homers in a game four times this season ... the Bruins have four grand slams (Yudin 2, Fox and Harrison 1), nine three-run homers, 15 two-run shots and 23 solo bombs ... 105 of UCLA's 241 runs have been scored with two outs (43.6%). Harrison leads the way with 20 two-out RBI, followed by Bates with 17, Fox (14) and Yudin (13) ... the Bruins' .458 on base percentage is on pace to shatter the single-season record of .432, which was set last year.

BRUINS IN THE NATIONAL RANKINGS

Junior Andrea Harrison is in the national Top 50 in six statistical categories, ranking 14th in slugging (.890), 15th in on base percentage (.564), 17th in RBI per game (1.20), tied for 18th in homers per game (0.34), 25th in walks per game (0.74) and 35th in batting average (.430). SCOUTING THE ARIZONA STATE SUN DEVILS

The Sun Devils are 37-4 on the season and 4-2 in Pac-10 play after winning their second-straight conference series last weekend in Oregon. In both Pac-10 road series against California and Oregon, Arizona State has won on Friday and Saturday, but lost on Sunday. The Sun Devils own a 6-3 record against ranked teams. As a team, ASU is batting .370 with 55 home runs and 38 stolen bases, averaging 8.4 runs per game. All nine starters are hitting above .300, led by junior Katelyn Boyd, who is tops on the squad with a .465 batting average, 12 home runs, 44 runs batted in, 12 doubles and 14 stolen bases. Freshman Alix Johnson is batting .400 with three homers and 30 RBI, while senior Krista Donnenwirth is hitting .394 with four homers and 36 RBI. In the circle, freshman Dallas Escobedo leads the team with a 1.44 earned run average, an 18-2 record and 172 strikeouts in 117 innings. Redshirt freshman Mackenzie Popescue is 10-2 with a 1.70 ERA and 50 strikeouts in 74 1/3 innings. Clint Myers is in his sixth year at Arizona State and holds a record of 301-104.

THE SERIES: BRUINS VS. SUN DEVILS

Home-field advantage isn't what it's cracked up to be in the UCLA-Arizona State series of late, as the visiting team has claimed the last seven contests, including a Sun Devil three-game sweep last year by scores of 8-5, 4-2 and 2-1 (April 9-11). In 2009, the Bruins produced a 9-1, five-inning win and a 10-4 triumph in Tempe. UCLA leads the all-time series 88-26 and is 38-11 at Arizona State.

RECAPPING LAST WEEKEND'S ACTION

Sunday - Stanford 5, UCLA 1

Junior Katie Schroeder had two hits and drove in the Bruins' lone run, while junior Aleah Macon struck out six in 5 1/3 innings of relief, but sixth-ranked UCLA fell to #13 Stanford 5-1 on Sunday at Easton Stadium.

The Bruins fall to 28-7 overall and 4-2 in Pac-10 action, while the Cardinal improve to 26-8 and 2-4 in league play.

UCLA had five hits as a team. Senior Donna Kerr (10-2) started and allowed one run, two hits and one walk in 1 2/3 innings. Macon gave up four runs (two earned) and seven hits in her relief stint.

Stanford got on the board quickly with a run in its first at-bat. Sarah Hassman singled to left to open the game, moved up two bases on two successive groundouts and scored on a single up the middle by Danielle Miller to make it 1-0.

The Cardinal added another run in the fourth when Jenna Rich hit a 1-1 pitch out to left field to make it 2-0. In the fifth, Stanford increased the margin to 3-0. Ashley Hansen was hit by a pitch to start the inning, but was forced at second on a fielder's choice groundout off the bat of Miller, who advanced to second on a wild pitch and was pinch-run for by Jaquilyn Edwards. One out later, Michelle Prong singled through the right side to plate Edwards.

In the sixth, Stanford scored a pair of unearned runs. Melisa Koutz reached on an error by senior GiOnna DiSalvatore at third to open the inning and moved to third on a double to center by Teagan Gerhart. Hassman then tapped a ball to short and freshman Kellie Fox looked Koutz back to third, but she slid back safely to load the bases. After Corey Hanewich grounded one to first and junior Dani Yudin came home to force Koutz for the first out, Hansen singled to left to bring in Gerhart to make it 4-0. Miller then lifted a sacrifice fly to center to plate Hassman with the Cardinal's fifth run.

The Bruins finally got on the board in the bottom of the seventh to avoid their first shutout. With one out, freshman Alyssa Tiumalu walked and was pinch-run for by senior Grace Murray, who moved to second one out later on a single to left by freshman Talee Snow. Schroeder then singled to left to bring home Murray to make it 5-1. Sophomore B.B. Bates followed by hitting one off the glove of Gerhart in the circle, but it bounced to Rich at second, as she flipped to Hansen at the bag to end the game.

Saturday - Stanford 6, UCLA 2

Senior GiOnna DiSalvatore had her second-straight, three-hit game, while juniors Katie Schroeder and Dani Yudin added two hits apiece, but 13th-ranked Stanford stole from the UCLA playbook by scoring all six of its runs with two outs, as the Cardinal knocked off the sixth-ranked Bruins 6-2 on Saturday at Easton Stadium.

The Bruins fall to 28-6 overall and 4-1 in Pac-10 play, while the Cardinal improve to 25-8 and 1-4 in league action.

UCLA had 10 hits, but left 11 on base. Freshman Jessica Hall (14-5) started and allowed five runs, five hits and three walks in 4 1/3 innings. Senior Donna Kerr tossed 2 2/3 frames of relief, striking out three and giving up a run, four hits and a walk.

The Bruins got on the scoreboard first with a run in their initial at-bat. Schroeder led off with a slap single to short, and one out later, stole second. DiSalvatore followed with a double down the right-field line to plate Schroeder to make it 1-0. The double was the 60th of DiSalvatore's career, as she became UCLA's all-time leader in that category.

Stanford came back with four in the third on two big bombs. With two outs, Corey Hanewich hit a 1-0 pitch out to center to even the score at one. After a single up the middle by Ashley Hansen and a walk to Jenna Rich, Danielle Miller blasted a 2-1 pitch out to center to put the Cardinal on top 4-1.

The Bruins battled back with a run in the bottom of the third. With one out, UCLA loaded the bases on a single to left by DiSalvatore, a walk to junior Andrea Harrison and a single to right by freshman Kellie Fox. Yudin followed with a single up the middle to plate DiSalvatore to cut the deficit to 4-2.

Stanford would score a pair of insurance runs with single scores in the fifth and sixth. In the fifth, Hansen had a one-out double to center and scored one out later on a single to left by Miller to make it 5-2. In the sixth, Kelsey Gerhart was hit by a pitch with one out and Sarah Hassman walked. One out later, Hansen singled up the middle to bring in Gerhart to increase the lead to 6-2.

Friday - UCLA 6, Stanford 5 (14 innings)

The sixth-ranked Bruins came back twice on Friday night, tying the game in the seventh on a two-run homer by freshman Alyssa Tiumalu and evening it again in the 13th on an RBI single by sophomore B.B. Bates, but it was junior Andrea Harrison's solo homer in the 14th that gave UCLA another walk-off win in a 6-5 victory at Easton Stadium.

The Bruins, who posted their 11th-comeback victory of the season, fourth walk-off, non-mercy rule win and second in a row, improve to 28-5 overall and 4-0 in Pac-10 play, while the Cardinal fall to 24-8 and 0-4 in league action. The 14-inning marathon (time 4:02) was the longest since a 14-inning affair against Mississippi in 2005.

Harrison left the yard twice, driving in three and posting three hits. Senior GiOnna DiSalvatore also had a three-hit game, while Tiumalu, junior Samantha Camuso and freshman Talee Snow each recorded two hits. The Bruins had 14 hits as a team.

Junior Aleah Macon (3-0) was outstanding in relief, striking out eight in 8 2/3 innings, allowing one run, five hits and three walks. Senior Donna Kerr started and fanned seven in 5 1/3 frames, giving up four runs (three earned), six hits and five walks.

The game began as a pitchers duel between Kerr and Stanford's Teagan Gerhart, who went the first 13 innings and threw 231 pitches. In the first three innings, Kerr stranded five Cardinal on base and struck out two in the first, three in the second and one in the third. On the other side, Gerhart retired the first six batters she faced and faced the minimum of nine batters, allowing only a Tiumalu single to lead off the bottom of the third, but erasing her on a double play.

In the fourth, Stanford got on the board on one swing of the bat. Michelle Prong led off with a single up the middle, and one out later, Jenna Becerra pushed a bunt single to the 3-4 hole to put two aboard. Gerhart walked to load the bases, but Sarah Hassman then grounded one to short, with freshman Kellie Fox short-hopping it and throwing home to get the force on Prong. However, Stanford rallied with two outs, as Corey Hanewich cleared the bases with a triple to right-center to put the Cardinal up 3-0.

The Bruins countered with a big, two-out swing of their own to cut their deficit to a run. DiSalvatore bounced a two-out single up the middle and came home when Harrison laced a 1-0 pitch that just cleared the fence in right field to make it 3-2. The homer was Harrison's 11th of the season.

Stanford added what proved to be a big insurance run in the top of the sixth thanks to a UCLA error. Becerra reached on a miscue by DiSalvatore at third, and one out later, the Cardinal had the bases loaded after a walk to Hassman and a hit by pitch of Hanewich. With Macon coming in the game in relief of Kerr, the first batter she faced was Ashley Hansen, who lifted a scoring fly ball to left to bring home Becerra to make it 4-2.

In the bottom of the seventh, the Bruins rallied to tie the game. Junior Dani Yudin drew a one-out walk and came home when Tiumalu launched a 1-2 pitch over the fence in left field to even the score at four. It was Tiumalu's sixth homer of the season.

Now it was Macon and Gerhart locked in a pitchers duel in extra innings. Macon struck out a pair in the seventh, eighth and 10th, retiring the side in order in the eighth and ninth innings.

In the ninth, the Bruins loaded the bases with one out, but were turned away by Gerhart. Freshman Kellie Fox hit a one-out single up the middle, and when Hassman had it go by her, Fox moved all the way to third. After a walk to Yudin and an intentional free pass to Tiumalu, Gerhart got Camuso to pop up and freshman Jessica Hall on a strikeout to keep the game tied at four. The Bruins would leave two more on base in the 10th, 11th and 12th.

In the 13th, Stanford re-took the lead. Alix Van Zandt led off with a pinch-hit single up the middle, with Gerhart re-entering at first. Gerhart then stole second, and one out later, scored on a double to right-center by Hanewich to make it 5-4.

The Bruins responded again with a two-out run in the bottom of the 13th. With one out, Camuso reached on a check-swing single in front of the plate and was pinch-run for by senior Amy Crawford, who moved to second on a single to left by Snow. One out later, Bates singled through the right side to drive in Crawford and even the game at five.

After the Cardinal stranded two in the top of the 14th, the Bruins won it in the bottom half. Stanford lifted Gerhart for Ashley Chinn, who only threw three pitches, the last of which Harrison sent over the fence in center field for her 12th homer of the season to give UCLA the 6-5 win.

HARRISON NAMED PAC-10 POW FOR SECOND TIME IN 2011

Junior Andrea Harrison has been named Pacific-10 Conference Player of the Week (April 12) for the second time in three weeks after a fantastic five-game effort that saw her hit .833 with nine runs batted in, eight runs scored and two home runs.

Harrison had 10 hits in 12 at-bats to help the Bruins to a 5-0 record during the week. The junior slugged 1.500 for the five games and had an .842 on base percentage. She added a pair of doubles, four walks and was hit twice. Defensively, Harrison did not commit an error in 22 chances between her time at first base and in left field.

In Wednesday's doubleheader against UC Santa Barbara, Harrison scored twice in the opener, walking once and also getting hit by a pitch. In the nightcap, the junior reached in all four plate appearances. After getting hit and walked in her first two trips to the dish, Harrison launched a three-run homer off the fair pole in right field in the fourth inning to give the Bruins an 8-3 lead. She would go on to single in her final at-bat in the sixth.

In Friday's Pac-10 opener against Oregon State, Harrison posted her second-career, four-hit game. After doubling in the first inning, she singled in three successive at-bats from the third through the fifth, scoring a run in the fourth.

On Saturday in the middle game, Harrison added two more hits and scored three times. The junior walked and scored in the first inning and singled and scored in the third. She led off the fifth with a double and came around to score another run.

In the weekend finale on Sunday, Harrison had a grand ending to a wonderful series. She got the Bruins on the board in the first inning with an RBI single and followed that with a scoring fly ball in the second. After the junior walked in the fourth, Harrison capped off the weekend with a walk-off, grand slam in the bottom of the fifth to give the Bruins a 12-2 victory.

The six-RBI effort on Sunday was a historic performance for Harrison, who not only became the 14th Bruin to drive in a half a dozen in a game, but became the first player to do it three times at UCLA.

Harrison leads the Bruins in all three triple-crown categories with a .432 batting average, 10 home runs and 38 runs batted in. She is also first in slugging (.886) and on base percentage (.557). The junior has raised her batting average 173 points over her last 11 contests.

Harrison was named Pac-10 POW for the first time this season on March 15 after she hit .750 with 10 RBI, five runs, two homers and five doubles at the Long Beach Marriott Invitational.

Her award is the third for the Bruins this season. Freshman Alyssa Tiumalu received the accolade on March 1. Harrison is now a three-time, Pac-10 Player of the Week honoree after also earning the award on May 3, 2010. The Bruins have 64 Pac-10 POW awards all-time.

ALYSSA TIUMALU NAMED PAC-10 PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Freshman Alyssa Tiumalu was named Pacific-10 Conference Player of the Week on March 1 after posting hits in all six games for the Bruins last week, going 10-for-16 (.625) with two home runs, five RBI and five runs scored in helping UCLA to a 4-2 record.

Tiumalu began the week at Cal State Northridge on Wednesday, reaching in all three plate appearances on a double, a walk and a hit by pitch. She also scored a run. Then against some of the toughest competition in the nation at the Cathedral City Classic last weekend, Tiumalu had nine hits in 15 at-bats (.600).

Tiumalu extended her hitting streak to 11 with hits in every game last week and hit her first two collegiate home runs, including a walk-off shot in a victory on Sunday against Northwestern.

The weekend began against #4 Florida on Friday, as Tiumalu went 2-for-3 and accounted for the Bruins' lone run on her first collegiate homer, a solo shot in the second. In the nightcap against #6 Oklahoma, the freshman had another two-hit game, adding a run scored and a walk to reach in all three of her plate appearances.

After recording a single versus #8 Tennessee on Saturday, Tiumalu had quite the encore to end the weekend on Sunday. Against Northwestern, the freshman posted her second, walk-off hit in as many weekends, belting a two-run homer in the bottom of the eighth inning to propel the Bruins to a 5-4 victory. In the second game on Sunday against Ohio State, Tiumalu notched her first three-hit game on three singles, adding a pair of RBI and scoring a run.

Tiumalu slugged 1.062 for the week and had a .684 on base percentage. She also did not commit an error in 46 attempts behind the plate. On the season, she leads the Bruins with a .457 batting average, adding two homers and 10 runs batted in.

KELLY INOUYE-PEREZ
5TH YEAR AS HEAD COACH
17TH YEAR AT UCLA
UCLA, 1993
RECORD: 211-56

Kelly Inouye-Perez, beginning her fifth season as the Bruins' head coach in 2011, led the UCLA softball program to its 12th national title and 11th NCAA championship in 2010. The Bruins went a perfect 10-0 in the postseason, including 5-0 at the Women's College World Series. UCLA set numerous WCWS records, including the most home runs in one tournament with 14. Megan Langenfeld was named the Most Outstanding Player of the WCWS, while Samantha Camuso and Andrea Harrison each earned All-Tournament honors. Following the season, Inouye-Perez and her staff were honored as the NFCA National Coaching Staff of the Year.

The Bruins went 50-11 in 2010, bringing Inouye-Perez's career record to 183-49 (.789 winning percentage) in four campaigns. UCLA set single-season school records for home runs, slugging, on base percentage and walks. Langenfeld and GiOnna DiSalvatore were each named to the NFCA All-America first-team. The Bruins also had three players named to the All-Region team and 10 honored by the Pac-10.

In 2009, she led the Bruins to a Pacific-10 Conference Championship, as UCLA went 45-11 overall and 16-5 in league play. She was named Pac-10 Coach of the Year and earned her 100th career victory on Feb. 22 against Maryland. In 2008, the Bruins went 51-9 and advanced to the Women's College World Series, finishing second in the Pac-10 with a 17-4 record. In her first season at the helm of UCLA in 2007, Inouye-Perez posted a 37-18 overall record and a 12-9 Pac-10 mark (t-3rd).

Over Inouye-Perez's four seasons, the Bruins have earned 11 All-American awards, 18 All-Region honors and 33 All-Pac-10 accolades.

Inouye-Perez, just the third head coach in UCLA softball history, officially took over the reins from Sue Enquist on Jan. 1, 2007. Enquist announced her retirement as head coach on Sept. 26, 2006.

No stranger to the Bruin dugout, Inouye-Perez starts her 23rd straight season in Westwood in 2011. She is a link to four decades of Bruin softball success, joining the UCLA softball program as a freshman in 1989. Inouye-Perez's time is highlighted by seven NCAA Championships and eight Pac-10 titles in her previous 22 years, spending five campaigns as a player and 13 as an assistant.

Over Inouye-Perez's 13 seasons (1994-2006) as an assistant coach, UCLA was 617-150-1 (.804) and appeared in the NCAA title game seven times, winning the NCAA Championship in the 1999, 2003 and 2004 seasons. The Bruins also won three Pac-10 titles during that span (1999, 2002, 2006) and in 2004 were named the National Coaching Staff of the Year by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA).

Inouye-Perez's primary responsibility as an assistant coach was guiding the Bruin pitchers and catchers, a list which includes many of the most honored and recognizable names in collegiate softball. Behind the dish, where Inouye-Perez also starred as a three-time All-Pac-10 honoree during her playing days at UCLA, she helped mold and influence arguably the best catcher in the history of USA Softball in Stacey Nuveman. Under Inouye-Perez's tutelage, Nuveman became a three-time Pac-10 Player of the Year, four-time, first-team All-American and the NCAA's all-time single season and career home run leader.

Since the Pac-10 Conference began issuing a Pitcher of the Year Award, UCLA has been honored with two winners, Courtney Dale in 1999 and Keira Goerl in 2003. Among the other pitching highlights accomplished by the Bruins over her 13 years as an assistant included at least one All-American award earned by a UCLA pitcher in 12 of those campaigns, including DeeDee Weiman, four-time Olympian Tanya Harding and two-time Olympian Amanda Freed.

In addition, nearly every UCLA pitching record has been set during the time Inouye-Perez has overseen the Bruin battery and the top four pitchers on UCLA's career wins list, Goerl, Selden, Freed and B'Ann Burns, were coached by her.

Inouye-Perez was an exceptionally strong fielder behind the dish for the Bruins. She made her mark immediately as a collegiate player, earning first-team All-Pac-10 as a true freshman and second-team as a sophomore, leading the Bruins to the 1989 and 1990 NCAA Championships before receiving a medical redshirt in 1991 due to shoulder surgery.

She came back strong in 1992, picking up second-team All-Pac-10 honors as the Bruins once again won the national championship and finished with a 54-2 record, the fewest losses in a season in program history. Inouye-Perez also was named to the 1992 All-Women's College World Series Team, going 5-for-12 (.417) with four RBI during WCWS play. She wrapped up her career as a fifth-year senior in 1993 with an NCAA runner-up finish. Impressively, Inouye-Perez did not commit a single fielding error during her final two seasons.

Among the UCLA pitchers during her five seasons as a player were Lisa Longaker and Lisa Fernandez, both of whom were named to the NCAA's 25th Anniversary All-WCWS Team. During her UCLA career, Inouye-Perez played in 22 Women's College World Series games, a mark that is tied for third-best in UCLA history behind only Lisa Fernandez and Kristy Howard (23). Inouye-Perez graduated from UCLA in 1993 with a B.A. in psychology and earned her master's degree in physical education from Azusa Pacific University in 2004.

Prior to college, Inouye-Perez was one of the top players during her ASA days, winning four national championships, with the Panthers (1984, `85 and `89) and the Raiders (1986). She also competed on an international level in Japan in 1985 and in Peru in 1987 (Pan American Tournament) and followed her collegiate career with time playing on the NPF Pro Tour.

Inouye-Perez and her husband, Gerardo Perez, currently reside in Cerritos. Along with Kelly's exploits on the diamond, Gerardo competed as a catcher/DH for Cerritos College from 1988-90 and helped lead the Falcons to the 1989 Junior College National Championship. After a stellar career at Cerritos, he went on to compete at Loyola Marymount, earning first-team All-West Coast Conference honors his junior and senior seasons. He currently teaches health and coaches baseball at Gahr High School in Cerritos. The couple has two children, Michael (11) and Kylie (6).
